

SMASHING BLOW IS DEALT GERMANS BY THE BRITISH

GENERAL HAIG'S TROOPS TAKE TEUTON POSITIONS TO DEPTH OF A MILE

London, Nov. 13.—General Haig's forces struck another terrific blow at the German lines about the Ancre today. After thunderous artillery preparation, the infantry took German positions to the depth of a mile, the war office announced this afternoon.

The British troops, dashing irresistibly forward, captured the villages of Beaumont and Hamel, just north of a deep bend in the Ancre and about seven miles due west of Baupaulme, the objective of the great English offensive.

Many Prisoners Reported Taken

London, Nov. 13.—A considerable number of prisoners were captured when positions on both banks of the Ancre river were taken, General Haig reported to the war office today.

Serbs Pursue Retreating Bulgarians

London, Nov. 13.—Continuing their pursuit of retreating Bulgarian forces which were driven out of Polog in the Cerna front fighting, Serbian troops have captured Iven, north of Polog.

The fighting in this sector has been continued night and day, the official statement which told of Ivens' capture said. Bulgarians, time after time, attacked and occasionally gained a temporary advantage which they failed, however, to maintain.

Fighting was particularly fierce along the Monastir-Florina railway.

"Falling Back In Disorder"

Paris, Nov. 13.—A most violent battle is raging with continued success for the French-Serbo forces in the region about the big bend of the Cerna river, Salonika headquarters reported to the war office today. Fighting has been going on two days and nights.

The war office announcement confirmed the report from Serbian headquarters, saying Teutonic forces were driven from the village of Iven and the French official statement added that the retreating armies are "falling back in disorder." The Serbian pursuit continues despite five counterattacks.

The enemy's losses were serious.

BUCKEYE BRIEFS

PORT CLINTON—Charles Brodbeck, wealthy farmer, summoned members of his family to his home, where they found his body hanging in a shed.

OVERLIN—Pie and ice cream and all other desserts are banned at Oberlin college until a fund for European sufferers is established.

CLEVELAND—A cigarette caused the death of two men, when a mattress caught fire and started a blaze in a rooming house here.

OVERLIN—Faculty members claim they saw students say it was too dark, but just the same an edict has gone forth at Oberlin college against "movie speaking."

TOLEDO—The Daylite, last of a fleet of six standard oil company auxiliary schooners, was launched here.

ASHVILLE—Wellon Hudson, 14, was killed when thrown from a horse.

COLUMBUS—Thanksgiving turkeys will cost 40 cents a pound here, according to dealers.

COLUMBUS—Luther Kincaid, 31, negro, is being held for investigation in connection with the death of his wife, Emma, 37, and White, whose body was found with all ribs broken.

TO HEAR GRAND OPERA—Chicago, Nov. 13.—The Women's Trade Union League has purchased eight season tickets to the Chicago Grand Opera Company, and the working girls will be further elevated.

FEDERAL JUDGE DEAD—Mobile, Ala., Nov. 13.—Federal Judge H. A. Toulan, stricken with paralysis, died early today. Judge Toulan was to have retired December 1.

GERMANS LOSE DESTROYERS IN RAID

Petrograd, Nov. 13.—German naval forces bombarded the Finnish coast Friday under cover of a fog, it was officially announced. The statement said a number of vessels had been sunk. The vessels sunk were part of the bombarding ships, the report stated. The bombarding vessels were 36 knot torpedo boats.

HELP! UP GOES PRICE OF ALARM CLOCKS & MATTRESSES

Cleveland, Nov. 13.—And now comes the most unkind blow of all. The price of the most unpopular article in the world was boosted today. Perhaps it was a bit of irony. A local department store announced a 25 per cent increase in the price of alarm clocks and almost in the same breath announced an increase in mattresses. Can you beat it?

AN AMERICAN SHIP SUNK BY U-BOAT

ROLLED PEANUT WITH TOOTHPICK

Washington, D. C., Nov. 13.—The police held up one election bet payment here when Munn Cannon, George Washington University student, rolling a peanut with a toothpick held in his teeth, blocked traffic on Pennsylvania avenue.

WASTED INK

New York, Nov. 13.—The farthest south in un-needed advice is an item in today's grocery menu telling grocers to charge the public higher prices because it is prosperous.

FOUL PLAY SUSPECTED

Hank, O., Nov. 13.—Police authorities are making an effort to round up 14 or 15 members of a railroad repair gang who may know something about the death of John Sullivan, 45, of Chicago. Sullivan was found dead in a box car on Saturday by men loading straw. Coroner Beyer found marks on the man's neck that indicated he had been strangled with a handkerchief. The head was badly bruised and there were holes in the skull that had been made with a board having a nail in it.

ORDER DISSOLUTION PAPERS PREPARED IN CORN PRODUCTS CASE

New York, Nov. 13.—Final decree in the Corn Products dissolution suit brought by the federal government was issued today by Judge Hand in the United States District court, ordering attorneys for the corporation to prepare plans for dissolution and present them for the court's approval within 120 days.

London, Nov. 13.—Further details regarding the sinking by a German submarine of the American Hawaiian steamer Columbian, are expected hourly. Word has been received here that progress is being made in the taking of affidavits from members of the Columbian's crew who were landed at Corruana.

Fragmentary reports on the stories of these men agree on these facts:

During a lashing gale the Columbian was held up a week ago today by a German submarine which forced her to throw out sea anchors and leave to until the storm subsided. After two days of swinging in heavy seas, the submarine commander ordered the crew to the small boats. When all were off the submarine torpedoed the steamer, which later sank.

Railroads Must Abide By 8-Hour Law Or Strike Will Follow, Says Official

Cleveland, O., Nov. 13.—A general strike of four hundred thousand railroad brotherhood members, is certain unless the railroads abide by the Adamson law, W. G. Lee, president of the Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen, said today before leaving for New York City to attend a conference committee of railway managers and brotherhood heads, concerning the workings of the Adamson law. He indicated that the brotherhoods expected an evasion of the law from the railroads and said that the strike threatened this summer, would surely come unless railroads lived up to the law.

Visited Home Folks

Frank McConnell, colored, employed by Haley and Gooden, spent Sunday with home folks in Trenton.

DEAD MAN DRIVES NINE TO DEATH

Vancouver, N. C., Nov. 13.—That a dead man drove possibly 11 persons, certainly nine, to their death on Saturday night, when George Smith sent a crowded motor stage through the open switch of the north arm bridge into the waters of the Fraser river, was the theory suggested today by acquaintances of the chauffeur.

Smith is reported to have suffered from heart disease and probably was dead when he rushed his vehicle upon the bridge with the red lights shining clear against him.

COAL DROPS

Cleveland, O., Nov. 13.—Coal dropped one dollar a ton here today. Dealers say the drop in price is due to threats of embargoes.

FAMOUS ASTRONOMER DEAD

Phoenix, Ariz., Nov. 13.—Dr. Percival Lowell, world famous astronomer, head of the observatory at Flagstaff, Ariz., died late last night of apoplexy, according to word received here today.

WINS SUIT; LOSES LIFE

New Castle, Ky., Nov. 13.—Joseph Batts, farmer, was shot and killed in front of the court house today. He had just won a law suit from Taylor Breeden.

"CONFIDENCE" MAN IS WANTED

Chicago, Nov. 13.—A. Weseli, 50, wanted in Toledo, O., on a charge of working a confidence game, was arrested here today. Weseli, it is said kept money given him by Hungarian saloonkeepers for whom he had promised to obtain a license. It is said he collected between $5,000 and $10,000.

PRESIDENT WILSON RETURNS TO WORK; G. O. P. WAITS FOR OFFICIAL VOTE

WHO DID IT?

Washington, D. C., Nov. 13.—The American Union against militarism today issued a statement declaring "fighting pacifists" elected Wilson.

This led a government statistician to compile the following list of statements:

"President Wilson declared for preparedness and the American people decided to keep him four years more."—The Navy League.

"The cause of labor, justice and freedom has been vindicated."—President Gompers, of the American Federation of Labor.

"Progressives were absolutely responsible."—John M. Parker, Progressive nominee for vice president.

"It was a victory for women's suffrage."—The Congressional Union.

"General Otis W. Crocker and Francis V. Keeslin have the proud distinction."—Hiram Johnson, of California.

COLD WAVE HITS WEST

Denver, Colo., Nov. 13.—The present cold wave has broken weather records in the northwest and in the Rocky mountain regions, according to Forecaster Brandenburg, of the Denver weather bureau. Pocatello, Idaho, reported a low mark of four above zero, the lowest temperature ever recorded in November in that city.

Denverites shivered in a temperature of two below zero at 6 a. m. today.

The crest of the cold wave was in Montana last night with temperatures of ten below zero.

Sunday Holds City Of Boston By "The Heels"

Boston, Nov. 13.—Still dynamic, forceful, effervescent, Billy Sunday apparently held blue blooded cultured Boston by the heels.

Between fifty and sixty thousand persons jammed their way into the huge house of "Sawdust Trails" yesterday while in three whirlwind sessions the noted evangelist blistered their ears. Today Sunday will speak to the Boston Association of Unitarian Ministers and it is expected that the fur will fly.

"Come on you cigarette smoking sisters, I've got your number," Sunday shouted during one sermon.

TO REARGUE CASES INVOLVING WORKMEN'S COMPENSATION LAW

Washington, D. C., Nov. 13.—Reargument of cases involving the workmen's compensation laws of five states—New York, Ohio, Washington, Iowa and New Jersey—was ordered by the supreme court.

Questions in the New York, Iowa and Washington case involved directly the constitutionality of the laws. In the New Jersey and Ohio laws, the question is that of interpretation—whether men engaged in interstate commerce are affected. This question arises along with the constitutionality question in the New York case.

PROTEST PROPOSED ACTION

Columbus, O., Nov. 13.—James Pfliz and Clarence Vinner, minority stockholders in the New York Central railroad, today protested to State Utilities Commissioners against a proposed $12,000,000 guarantee trust note issued for new railroad equipment.

(By Robert J. Bender, United Press Staff Correspondent)

Washington, Nov. 13.—President Wilson was back at work in Washington today. He faced a vast job which must be cleaned up rapidly.

Pending receipt of a message from Charles E. Hughes, conceding Democratic victory in the election, the president withheld any announcement regarding his policies for the next four years. He has intimated to immediate friends, however, that he will issue some statement upon receipt of Hughes' congratulations.

The president will start work very soon on the message to congress to be read when that body reconvenes next month. Continued doubt as to the composition of the house, and as to which party holds the balance of power, including the speakership, is staying the hand of the president temporarily in the formation of proposals he will make in his first message to congress. Regardless, however, of conditions in the house, the president will urge immediate action in clearing up his program proposed at the time that he obtained congressional co-operation in averting the recently threatened railway strike.

(By Carl D. Groat, United Press Staff Correspondent)

New York, Nov. 13.—Republican National Chairman Willcox and Charles E. Hughes are still waiting today for official returns before taking any further action in connection with last Tuesday's election or sending President Wilson a congratulatory message, which would concede his reelection.

"I do not think there is anything unpatriotic in waiting until we have final returns before acknowledging Mr. Wilson's reelection," said Willcox. "We are not only waiting for California returns, but Minnesota, New Hampshire and New Mexico. I believe the country wants to know who is really president before any formal announcement is made."

St. Paul, Minn., Nov. 13.—A big error in Fairbault county, discovered on official count, with small but consistent gains for Wilson in other official figures, including votes by mail and the soldier vote.

Billy Batt In Times Weather Man

I notice that the war which took a vacation while the election was going on is gradually coming back into its old position on the front page. Judging from the compliments I'm getting this must be about the public ideal of what weather ought to be. For my ideal you'll have to wait about a couple of weeks. Here's for tomorrow:

Ohio—Probably rain tonight, turning to snow. Tuesday colder. Cold wave in southwest portion.

Kentucky—Overcast and much colder weather tonight and Tuesday, with probably rain, turning to snow. Cold wave.

West Virginia—Probably rain tonight turning to snow Tuesday. Much colder.

German Troops Are Repelling Allied Attacks With "Buried Artillery"

(BY CARL W. ACKERMAN)
SOMEWHERE ON THE SOMME, Nov. 10.—(Via Berlin and Wireless to Sayville)—Nov. 13.—Germany is defending the Somme with buried artillery. In their assaults French and British are attacking only the surface of the greatest fortifications in the world. Germany built a surprise for the allies here in a wonderful series of artillery defenses. The bombardment is terrific. Fields, woods and towns are torn to pieces by constantly exploding shells. But underground nothing is touched. And it is from her sub-surface forts that Germany is repelling the allied attack.

For a week I have been over the Somme battlefield. From a height near Peronne and to the south of Arras, our party twice penetrated the shells area.

While waiting in the library of a castle serving as the headquarters of one of the commanding generals, the windows rattled and doors shook from the concussion of bursting shells. With this constant explosion in our ears and escorted by intelligent officers we motored to Bapaume.

There we watched the British fire in the tower. Only one church spire and one chimney is still standing.

Entrances to thousands of underground forts which the Germans have built in an endless chain could be seen on all sides. The underground defenses vary in depth from a few feet to as much as sixty feet. No cannon yet invented can penetrate them. And this is the reason, German officers explain, why the enemy cannot destroy the defense.

Our automobile increased its speed and others whizzed by, one carrying the remains of French aeroplanes. Officers and artillerymen were living with many comforts of home. Further out we passed hundreds of French civilians. Laborers were working on a new net work of railways which has been constructed back of the Somme since the battle began.

Automobiles are hardly able to plow through and soldiers from the first line declare they waded in mud like pigs on a farm. In one village the English fired during one night thirty thousand gas bombs but the next morning the German soldiers crawled out like rabbits from their holes and went to work again. Unanimous opinion concerning the tanks is that they are costly failures. They can travel only four miles an hour and are easily overturned by artillery. It is admitted their use caused surprise, although now there is nothing to fear. All the German soldiers have had an opportunity to study small models back of the front, and the artillery now knows how to destroy the tanks.

KNIFE IS USED BY N. & W. SWITCHMAN IN A FIGHT

FELLOW WORKMAN STABBED IN LUNG; ARREST IS MADE

Following an argument over a remark which Ora B. Medley, 21, N. & W. switchman, Mabert Road, was alleged to have made, Carman Keyes, 28, N. & W. switchman, 1516 Poplar street, was stabbed and painfully wounded by Medley. The affray occurred at the N. & W. terminals at 10:45 o'clock Monday morning.

Keyes was taken to the Y. M. C. A. shortly after the trouble occurred and Drs. O. R. and W. D. Micklethwait were called. Later the patient was removed to the Hempstead hospital, where the wounds were treated. One stab was over the right lung, penetrating the upper portion of the lung to a depth of about a half inch. It required eight stitches to close it. The other stab was on the right shoulder, near the arm. Three stitches were taken to close it.

After the fight, Medley left. The police were notified and Sergeant James Smith and Clerk Harry Johnson went to the scene. Later the two officers went to the Medley home on Mabert Road, where they captured the knife-wielder.

As the officers approached the Medley home, the young man jumped out of the back door and started across a lot. Police Clerk Harry Johnson pulled out his pistol and told him to stop. He halted and was taken into custody.

At the city jail Medley told the officials that himself and Keyes had been tending switches at the terminals for some time and were friends. Early Monday morning they became involved in an argument over a remark which Keyes claimed Medley

Democrats Hold A Jollification Parade

Headed by the River City band local Democrats staged a parade all of their own Saturday night by way of celebrating Woodrow Wilson's re-election. The parade was sprinkled with banners that proudly proclaimed the Democratic victory, there were many Democrats of the "shouting variety" in the parade and the down town streets were thronged with people to see it. It moved from the Washington hotel at 7:30 and came north on Second street to Chillicothe, north on Chillicothe to Ninth, up Ninth to Findlay and then south on this street to Gallia and then west on Gallia to the Government Square, where the parade disbanded after the River City band rendered a short concert.

Old time Democrats joined in with the younger Demmies of this town and as the parade moved along the marchers would hurl all kinds of jibes at their friends on the side lines.

Three Local Churches Canvass Members; Success Is Reported

Three churches, Bigelow, Manly and German Evangelical, conducted an "Every Member Canvass" Sunday afternoon. Bigelow and Manly churches held their canvass only for "Good Fellowship", while the yearly pledges for funds were taken at the homes of members of the German Evangelical church. Each canvass was a decided success, judging from the preliminary reports made Sunday evening.

Bigelow Canvass
The "Good Will Canvass", which was conducted by the members of the Men's Bible class, Bigelow Methodist church Sunday afternoon between the hours of two and five o'clock, was a decided success. Thirty teams under the leadership of the following captains visited the home of every member of the church for an exchange of greetings: Edward T. Reed, Earl Pursell, Ben Dillion, Arthur Horst, R. B. Cunningham and D. A. Grimes.

At each home the teams urged the members to attend the Home Coming exercises, which are to be held next Sunday.

Dr. C. E. Chandler, pastor of the Bigelow church is preparing a special sermon for next Sunday, which promises to be one of the most interesting delivered at that church for several months. Besides the special sermon, an elaborate musical programme will be arranged.

Manly Canvass
Manly sent out twenty-two men teams who spent the entire afternoon in visiting the home of every member of the church on a "Good Fellowship Canvass". The men also included in their visit the homes of people who are in Manly congregations but who are not connected with the church. The workers gave a preliminary report Sunday evening which showed that the canvass was a success. A full report of the work will be made at a meeting to be held tonight at the home of J. M. Lowe, chairman of the canvass committees. Definite results realized from the work will be known at this meeting. It is the plan of Rev. J. P. Grimes, pastor of the church, to hold these workers together, so they can carry on their work in evangelistic and personal work.

German Evangelical Canvass
Forty men of the German Evangelical Sunday school and church composing twenty-two men teams, visited every member of the church Sunday afternoon between the hours of one and five o'clock. The "Every Member Canvass" was to secure the yearly pledges of the members, for the 1917 church fund and go to pay the running expenses of the church. Only a few of the teams made preliminary reports Sunday evening, but from their reports the canvass was a success. Full results will be known Tuesday evening when the different committees report at the monthly Brotherhood meeting.

NORMA TALMADGE, GLADDEN JAMES AND KATE LESTER IN NEW TRIANGLE FEATURE, "THE SOCIAL SECRETARY"

Don't Miss This at the Columbia Tonight.

In "The Social Secretary," Triangle-Fine Arts feature to be seen at the Columbia tonight, Norma Talmadge is starred in a play entirely different from any of the others in which she has appeared and in a part which is both unique and interesting.

She is seen as a beautiful young woman who has to earn her living and is annoyed by the unwelcome attentions of every man for whom she works. After having left half a dozen positions because of this persistent persecution she answers the advertisement of a woman of wealth who wants a social secretary.

Before doing so she disguises herself in such a way that no one would suspect her of being beautiful. She gets the job and finds in the household where she is employed a son and a daughter, the former a victim of bad habits, the latter about to sell herself to a very poor specimen of foreign nobility for his somewhat tarnished title.

The young man returning late one night catches the secretary without her disguise and promptly falls in love with her. Then there are many complications and adventures, in which the girl sacrifices her own reputation to save that of the daughter of the house but eventually succeeds in saving both the daughter and the son from their respective follies, while clearing her own name in the bargain. Also, she finds a husband in the person of the reformed youth.

Miss Talmadge has a role which gives her excellent opportunities and she makes the most of them.

ABOUT COLDS

Many a person refuses to believe that they are really sick unless they are confined to the bed. Because they can move about and because it does not interfere too seriously with their work, they allow their "regular winter cold" to run on and on, making no effort to check it, until very often it has so sapped their vitality that they are unable to fight a really dangerous illness. Be on the safe side. At the first sign of a cough or cold—sneezing, tickling in the throat, hoarseness, etc.—purchase a bottle of Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup at your nearest druggist. You will be amazed at the almost instant relief it effects. Over 20,000,000 bottles sold to date attest its efficacy. 25 cents at druggists or you can try it free by writing, A. C. Meyer & Co., Baltimore, Md.

"The Destroyers", a five part Vitaphone Big Four Feature, is crammed with fulsome interest and dynamic action.

From the ease of society to the ruggedness of snow lined woods, comes a girl to look for "Peter God." How she falls in love with the Royal Mounted Guard, then finds "Peter God" as a hermit, smitten with the "Red death," and nurses him back to health and love, makes for a high voltage photoplay with the swift moving, clipity-clip of a dynamo and with the full pulsed invigoration of the snow touched pine.

Of added interest to the film fans is the fact that a new Vitaphone satellite, Lucille Lee Stewart is featured.

TRAFFIC RULES TO BE ENFORCED

A more rigid enforcement of the traffic ordinance was ordered Monday morning by Mayor H. H. Kaps. Each patrolman is instructed to report every machine owner and every driver of wagons, trucks and vehicles of all sorts for any violation to the chief of police, who will issue an affidavit.

Several violators have already been reported and the police will serve them with notices sometime Monday.

In speaking of the instructions Monday, Mayor Kaps said that cars standing along the curb without lights, or without licenses and cars taking the wrong side of the street; cars bearing the wrong license tag or cars stopped on the wrong side of the street came under the traffic ordinance and that the drivers of the machines would be ordered to report to headquarters. For each violation a fine will be assessed.

IS DIVORCE DUE TO BAD HEALTH?

Declares Snappy Temper Is Result of Physical Worries.

SICK PEOPLE ARE PEEVISH

Tanlac Man Says If Food Digests Properly the Blood and Nerves Will Be in Good Condition and the Disposition to Be Irritable and Quarrelsome Will Vanish.

Is divorce in America partly due to the increasing ravages of stomach troubles? This conclusion might be drawn from the theory recently advanced by the Tanlac Man, whose novel ideas are creating much comment.

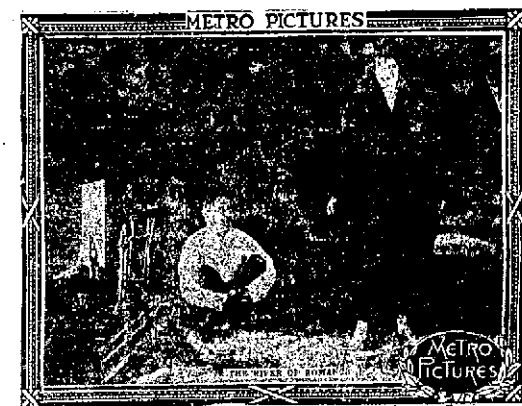

"I am every day becoming more firmly convinced," he stated, "that more domestic unhappiness is caused by that miserable feeling called 'a little out of sorts' than by any other one cause. The nerves are irritable, everything looks blue, a naturally good tempered person becomes snappy, cross and hard to get along with."

Ill Temper, Bad Health. "No one who is feeling thoroughly well will be peevish and irritable without cause. In nine cases out of ten a bad temper is caused by ill health. And 95 per cent of all physical worries is caused by a stomach out of order. Tonic up the stomach, get the food digesting properly, the blood properly nourished, the nerves in order and the irritable, quarrelsome disposition will vanish. When one is full of exuberant good health every thing looks rosy."

In meeting the people who have interviewed me I have in nearly every instance been struck by the difference in their facial expression which the Tanlac treatment makes. Simply looking up the stomach and giving nature a chance to work the poisons out of the system changes the peevish, discontented expression to a good natured one."

Sold in Portsmouth, Ohio, by Fisher and Streich Pharmacy.

Tanlac may be obtained in the following nearby towns: New Boston, E. H. Coburn; Sciotoville, Sciotoville Pharmacy; Bloom-sworth, H. J. Harold Lockwood and May Allison in "The River of Romance," Columbia Tomorrow.

Harold Lockwood and May Allison, without question one of the most popular stellar combinations now appearing on the screen, will be seen here at the Columbia tomorrow in "The River of Romance," a five-part Metro wonderplay. The scenes for this feature are laid around the Thousand Islands, where Director Henry

Valentine Grant in "The Daughter of MacGregor," Paramount at Lyric Tomorrow

"The Daughter of MacGregor" tells the fascinating story of Jean, a little Scotch lassie who is a veritable chip of the old block.

Her father is imperious, hot-tempered and pugnacious—so is Jean. When the elder MacGregor announces to his daughter that she is no longer to entertain her young friend Winston, and in the same breath declares that he is about to marry the loquacious Miss Mac Grim, there is small wonder that Jean revolts. Running away from home, the girl finally works her way to America where she has an uncle who is a lumberman. Jean's welcome is not at all cordial, her uncle merely instructing the camp cook to put her to work and to see that she has plenty to do. But Jean's sunny disposition and her readiness to help everybody soon make her popular, and when she finally saves the camp from a serious theft, she even melts the hard heart of her uncle. But there is still another great crisis for Jean to experience—and we cannot but love her for the manner in which she faces her trials. Jean is indeed, one of the characters whom we all admire for her self-reliance and her irrepressible cheerfulness under any and all circumstances. The production itself is exquisitely staged, with many striking settings, and is a distinct Famous Players contribution to the Paramount Program.

Lucille Lee Stewart in the Vitaphone Super Feature "The Destroyers" at the Lyric

Taken from the novel, "Peter God" by James Oliver Curwood,

"In return I give you my wife—you've always had her—now she's yours". Scene from "The Ne'er Do Well" Coming to The Lyric Wednesday.

At the Exhibit "The Badge of Courage" is a five part Blue Ribbon Vitaphone drama, one of those famous Cyrus Townsend Bracy's productions featuring William Dunnen and George Holt. Louise Newbold, fearing a former suitor, James Armstrong, begs leave to accompany her husband on a trip to the mountains. While on a lonely trail, Louise's horse slips and both rider and horse fall over a high cliff. Louise's injuries are so unbearable that she implores her husband to end her life, and through his love for her he fulfills her wish. Five years later James Armstrong meets Emid Maitland, who comes out of the east, and falls in love with her. She is saved from a tornado by Newbold. Armstrong later forms a searching party and locates the pair in the mountain cabin. Armstrong is Newbold's old enemy and Armstrong kills himself, Newbold and Emid going east where they marry. A feature show for only ten cents.

Five Reel Drama at Temple Theatre Tonight

"Spellbound" is the title of a five reel masterpiece that will be reproduced at the Temple theatre tonight. This is a drama of the first water, strong in action and strong in climaxes, one of the most powerful plays ever witnessed in this vicinity and a play that has Manager Harold Polts' absolute guarantee. Come expecting to see one of the finest programs in the city and you will not be the least disappointed. Remember, the admission is only five cents although wherever shown "Spellbound" has always played to from 10c to 25 cents.

At The Strand "Drugged Waters" is a five part Red Feather feature drama which is the headline attraction at the Strand today. William Dow-lan and Gloria Ponda are the stars in this feature which alone insures all of its success. There is a fresh and new comedy motive in this five reel. The girl is in possession of a mineral spring resort. She inherited the property from her father but the mineral quality of the water has always been bought in a drug store. Her manager knows the secret and tells her she will have to marry him or he will tell. A young doctor comes along, saves the girl and improves business. Among the most laughable scenes are those in the sanitarium where a number of people are put through a series of baths and exercises. "Hired and Fired" is a two reel comedy, another one of the "Timothy Dobbis, That's Me" comedy series. A big baby show Tuesday, Today, tomorrow, 10 cents.

THEATRICAL

At The Sun

That the people of Portsmouth and vicinity are getting the stock company habit is evidenced by the large crowds that pour into the Sun Theatre. This pleases the management and encourages them to go after some of the big successes. For instance, the first half of this week, Robert Edson's great play, "Where the Trail Divides," will be the big attraction, and seldom played outside the larger cities, where the prices range much higher than at The Sun. The royalty is high for this class of plays, but the best is none too good for patrons of The Sun.

The Country Store feature will again be on this Friday night, and the management promises even a bigger and better one, which is going some, for many favorable comments have been heard about the last one, in which so many good presents were given away. Ladies' popular matinees every Tuesday, Wednesday, Friday and Saturday at The Sun.

AS ENTERPRISE NOT PROFIT

Discussing the matter of election extras issued by The Times more than one person has spoken of the big money there is in them for the publishers.

That is a rather an amusing view to those at all familiar with the cost of producing a paper. It will, perhaps, be interesting to give some data showing how mistaken it is and also remove, in part, a common impression, that campaigns are a source of great revenue to the press. Let us say first that until advertising was resorted to by parties, an approaching election meant a loss rather than a gain to newspapers. Business for the period was otherwise dull and the few extra papers issued did not bring a drop in the bucket, compared to the loss brought about through general dullness in trade.

As to extra editions that is another proposition altogether. Primarily they carry no advertising, the chief source of a newspaper's income, and there can be no profit in selling them at one cent a copy. To begin with the newsboys get a half cent for each copy sold. That cuts the receipts to the office down more than one-half, because returns, over-runs and waste are further to be deducted. With this must also be charged extra telegraph tolls, extra labor at extra pay, power, light, heat, ink and loss and wear on material and machinery—the metal used in making type is consumed in so many meltings, the life of the machinery is only so many revolutions. Thus each time they are used means a proportionate decrease of their value.

Even with all this we haven't allowed a thing for the reporters, managers and editors, though in a way they don't count, since they have got to do their work, whether it takes eight hours or twenty-four. Summing all this up together it can be easily believed extra editions don't produce enough profit, to pay for the sandwiches that are bought to fill up the hollow places left by meals uneaten.

Why then did The Times get out those ten extra editions? Simply and solely because it aspires to be and is a newspaper. It has a reputation as such to maintain and extend and nowhere, in all this broad land, in city small or great, did any paper give its constituency quicker or better service than The Times, and few equalled it. To give the best is the policy of The Times, a few dollars more or less in or out of its coffers for the time being is not reckoned. The final result is what counts with it and its fortunes. It strives for distinction in its class, for supremacy in its territory gained and maintained, relying on these to bring a reasonable profit on the total.

AS THE FIGURES TELL

Studying the belated figures one's conviction of the uncertainty of prognostications of elections grow. There are vagaries and apparent contradictions, impossible to account for, to say nothing of foretelling them.

Referring to some more notable of these by way of illustration we can say there was nothing the Wilson supporters so much feared as shift of German Democrats, as prospect made all the more imminent in the fact that for the first time in a presidential election, a large part of the Catholic clergy was active in politics and favoring Hughes. The returns from Cincinnati, with their immense population of German descent does not indicate the fear concerning this popular element was well founded. Perhaps, a more notable proof that it was not is furnished by Ste. Genevieve county, Missouri, the home of the senior editor. Three-fourths of the population thereof, and may be as high as five-sixths are of unmixed German blood and even more are Catholic in belief. Yet the Democrats carried the county by much larger majorities than has been the wont for some years past.

On the other hand, if the Republicans were alarmed over any one thing above the other it was the laboring vote, while their unquestioning reliance was placed on the farmer. Still here in Portsmouth, an exceptionally strong industrial town, they had almost "an old time majority,"—perhaps, to be in part accounted for by the large growth of the city and the hundreds of additional employees of the steel mills—but agricultural communities of Ohio and the west veered to the other side and actually caused defeat.

Bearing further on this subject, the vote in Henry county, this state, is of unusual interest. Up to two or three elections ago it was a Democratic stronghold, but of late has been going widely astray, owing to unfortunate party conditions. Its people being heavily of Teutonic origin, in the inner circles of party councils it was ominously discussed as a sore spot. What then did Henry county do? It did just like the rest of the country, performed the altogether unexpected and gave Wilson a majority about five times as great as was most optimistically hoped for.

No, you can't tell how the people are going to vote and with this dictum we dismiss the subject from further consideration.

We are yet thinking that the improvements on Sixth street being completed there is no call to let the debris from the old shacks cumber it as a remembrance of what was. Let this not be understood as having any reference to the site upon which is to go the next bank. Of a truth, the contractors for demolishing the building thereon are to be complimented for putting the premises in the best possible condition, awaiting plans to begin on the foundation.

And, if we can believe Bucharest it has come the turn of the redoubtable Von Mackensen to get "hisu."

If a thing can not happen one way, it can another, sometimes.

IT ALL DEPENDS

NOW IS THE BEST TIME

With the great contest over, there is news seeping out that the federal authorities are going to go vigorously into investigation and prosecution of hoodling and bull-doing in elections.

Let us hope there is no more news faking in the reports and that the department of justice will do just as it is said it is going to do. A more auspicious time could not occur. The public mind is in a state of calmness and fairness to accept whatever is proven. It has a right to honest elections and it also has a right to know whether it is getting them or not. The affirmative is just as important in a way as the negative. Confidence must abide in election results, else ultimately will the stability of the nation totter. Confidence can not exist in the supreme fullness it should be, if stories of vote buying, immense corruption sums expended, colonization of voters and coercion of employees are reported the nation over as they are every campaign. Many of these are, doubtless pure inventions, more are exaggerated, but all are injurious and discredit the most vital principle of democracy, the free and untrammelled expression of the popular will. There ought to be a law imposing penalty upon those who wantonly spread abroad tales of fraud and corruption of the ballots just the same as there is upon those who commit acts to the same end. Lacking this, however, there is only one thing for the authorities to do and that is to expose those guilty of false witness, or punish those of evil practice. And we repeat there is no better time than now with the people disposed to hear the actual truth and accept it.

Blessings, like misfortunes, come in flocks. He whom a nation once so proudly called "Teddy," says he has no advice to offer and isn't going to offer any; isn't going to say so much as a word.

A bit of heaven purifies the whole mass. Let us hope that for the new woman-congressman; or how shall we put that, congress-woman?

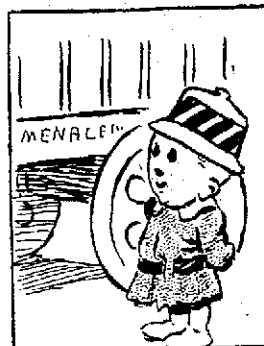

May be before the year closes Scioto county will have about four miles more of paved roads. We'll ask Jim Cox to help us double that for 1917.

It is getting a trifle monotonous narrating that prices of stocks and the activities of industries are increasing, but the condition is a pleasant one at that.

Council is going to be asked to wrestle with the problem, whether it is best to be a half hour behind the sun or an equal distance ahead.

We trust it is not because the services of a renowned landscape artist are not appreciated that the government means to let the beautifying of the postoffice plots by contract.

by young men who desire to eat in "Well, I'll be darned. Them guys the smart places and haven't the had the whole ocean to get by each proper change. They are sleek and other in and they couldn't pass with well dressed and always demand the out hitting."

They go through the menu hitting all cylinders and cut a deep swath in the grape. After they are well finished with the stimulants they engage in an argument. Compliments are passed back and forth until the head waiter is forced to intrude his presence.

A little later on the quarrel breaks out afresh and the manager arrives with blows being exchanged. He calls the flying wedge—every cafe has a flying wedge of waiters. It is the duty of this wedge to throw out diners who become obstreperous.

Once out on the street the young diners become sober almost instantly. It has worked with great success the last few months. The other night it was tried, however, on a man who is used to all of the tricks of the trade.

He watched on the sidelines for sometime. "I've got my eye on those birds," he said, "and this is going to be a good trick if they do it." When blows were passed the flying wedge got into motion, but instead of shunting the actors into the street they were taken to a private room and here they were held as hostage until the dinner check was settled. They had to send out to friends for the money.

The Bronx had another holiday last week. Heinie Zimmerman opened up a drink emporium in McKinley Square. He acted as his own bartender and invited all the sporting writers to roll up in their limousines and full dress suits and watch him dispense powders. Those who attended reported that as a drink mixer Heinie was a most excellent ball-player.

Alf T. Ringling, the circus man, has returned from a voyage to Porto Rico. He took his chauffeur with him. The steamer Brazos, on which they were passengers, was rammed in broad daylight by another steamer. The chauffeur attentively watched the two steamers approach closer.

NOTICE

To All Gas Consumers

When using a gas range, if the flame blackens the utensil, it is because the burners need cleaning and adjusting. If the flame in the heating stove is yellow, it is due to the same cause.

If you are having any of these troubles, notify us, and we will have a man call and adjust your stove.

It Can Be Done

Somebody said that it couldn't be done.

But he with a chuckle replied: "That 'Maybe it couldn't, but it would be one."

Who wouldn't say so till he'd tried."

So he buckled right in, with a trace of a grin.

On his face. If he worried, he hid it.

He started to sing as he tackled the thing.

That couldn't be done—and he did it.

Somebody scoffed: "Oh, you'll never do that."

At least no one has ever done it."

But he took off his coat and he took off his hat.

And the first thing we knew he'd begun it.

With the lift of his chin, and a bit of a grip.

(Not a doubt if he had one he hid it.)

He started to sing as he tackled the thing.

That couldn't be done—and he did it.

There are thousands to tell you it cannot be done.

There are thousands to prophesy failure.

There are thousands to point out to you, one by one.

The dangers that wait to assail you.

But just buckle right in with a bit of a grin.

Then take off your coat and go to it.

Just start in to sing as you tackle the thing.

That "cannot be done"—and you'll do it.

NO POWER TO FIX

Columbus, O., Nov. 13.—State Utilities Commissioners today set a precedent when in a Cincinnati case they ruled the commission has no power to fix an "emergency" gas or electric rate to be charged by a private company. Cincinnati formerly had thirty cent gas. Council passed an ordinance raising the price to 35 cents. A petition demanding a referendum was filed but the referendum cannot be voted until next August. The company announced it would charge 35 cents until the referendum in August. Cincinnati City Solicitor Groom held the company had no right to charge 35 cents, in as much as the pending referendum suspended the higher rate. Groom ruled the utilities commission must fix a temporary rate. This the commission declined to do.

Decrees

On the ground of wilful absence Elizabeth Trumbo was given a divorce from Robert L. Trumbo, Saturday afternoon in common pleas court. The wife was restored to her maiden name, Elizabeth Hendrickson. H. Stanley McCall represented Robert L. Trumbo and Blair and Kimble, Elizabeth Trumbo.

A decree of divorce was issued Saturday afternoon in the case of Clarence Hodge against Stella Hodge. In the petition the husband alleged adultery for the ground of action and in a cross petition the wife denied the allegation and asked divorce on the grounds of extreme cruelty and gross neglect. Blair and Kimble represented the plaintiff and Milner, Miller and Searl the defense.

The Markets

NEW YORK STOCKS

New York, Nov. 13.—Sentiment was again adversely influenced today by week-end developments of technical conditions. The heavy expansion of local bank loans although without effect on money rates, was another unfavorable factor. Total sales were estimated at 1,400,000 shares.
Highly favorable conditions prevailed at the opening of today's market in consequence of a renewal of pressure against some of the more prominent specialties. Central Leather was again singled out, making an initial decline of 3/8 to 1 1/8, with more moderate reactions in the equipment and rails. Markets with new records for Utah and Ray Copper. United States Steel was firm with independent individuals of the same class but the movement in other parts of the list became confusing with the progress of trading.
Coppers derived greater strength from the increased Utah division and reports from the early closing of a large contract for the metal with the French government. China was added to the list of new copper records and Granby rose five points. There was a brisk inquiry for Republic Iron, New York Air Brake and Industrial Alcohol at gains of 3 to 5 points. Gulf States steel issues advanced last week's sensational advances with gains of 2 to 13 points. Central Leather made no appreciable recovery and rails continued heavy aside from temporary activity and strength of Rock Island. Bonds were firm.
Prices sagged more generally in the final hour, the movement being led by United States Steel and war issues to the accomplishment of fresh price records. The closing was heavy.

CHICAGO GRAIN AND PROVISIONS

Chicago, Nov. 13.—Bullish foreign aidings gave a fresh upward swing today to the wheat market here. Opening prices, which ranged from 1 1/4 to 2 1/4, higher, with December at 1 1/4 to 1 1/2, and May at 1 1/4 to 1 1/2, were followed by a reaction but then a rise higher than before.
The close was unsettled at 1 1/4 to 1 1/2, Dec. 1 1/4, May with the market as a whole 1/8 off to 2 1/2, as compared with Saturday's finish.
Unfavorable Argentine conditions tended to lift corn as well as wheat. Offerings were light and corn went to the highest prices yet this season. After opening 1 1/4 to 1 1/2, the market sagged a little and then secured decided additional gains.
The close was nervous at 2 1/4 to 1 1/2, not advance.
On the corn and wheat ascended to new price records for 1916. Nearly all commission houses were on the buying side owing largely to the bulge in corn. Liberal receipts of hogs throughout the week weakened provisions. The chief selling pressure was on lard.

ous, the statement added. Somewhat to west the Serbians have further progressed north of Veliselo. Since September 12, the enemy has lost six thousand prisoners, 72 guns and fifty machine guns.

Larger Successes Won By Allies

London, Nov. 13.—Russians and Rumanians, Franco-Serbians are continuing their hammering against the lines of the Central Powers on every eastern and southeastern front today. At some points the Austrians are attacking fiercely, but, according to advices from all the capitals, the larger successes are being won by the arms of the entente allies.

Attacks Mackensen's Left Wing

Berlin—(Via Sayville)—Nov. 13.—Only groups of hostile detachments "feeling their way along the Danube" have attacked General Mackensen's extreme left wing in the Dobrudja, and these were forced back, the war office announced today in its first detailed account of the recent fighting at Cernavoda bridge.

The official account of the struggle for this eleven mile span across the two great arms of the Danube and over the wide marshy area in between stated:

"In the Balkan war theatre, Field Marshal Von Mackensen's army groups of hostile detachments, feeling their way along the Danube against the left wing of our position in the northern Dobrudja, were chased."

"Cernavoda was shelled without success from the left bank of the Danube."

Berlin, Nov. 13.—(Via Sayville)—German troops still held the eastern edge of the Saily-Sailisel positions, according to today's war office announcement of fighting on the western front.

Rumanians Forced To Yield Ground

Bucharest, Nov. 13.—On the right of the All valley the Rumanians have been forced to yield ground in the region of Saracibste. The war office announced today. Enemy attacks on the left were repulsed.

"In the Corbura valley two enemy attacks were repulsed," the announcement said. "We also maintained our positions about Dragoavice after a battle that lasted throughout the day."

"In the Jui valley enemy pressure continues to be strong. South-east of Orzova violent fighting has occurred and there were lively combats on the right bank of the Cerna river."

PRESIDENT

from thirteen counties, cut Hughes' lead in Minnesota at noon to 302.

San Francisco, Nov. 13.—All California stood expectant today when the official count of votes in this state for president began in each of the 58 counties. On the result will hinge the final decision whether Charles Hughes' presidential hopes may be revived or have been definitely blasted.

With the unofficial returns showing a plurality for Wilson of 3,160, it is pointed out by Republican leaders that a change of one vote per precinct, in favor of Hughes would give him the state by 2,245 plurality—provided no votes were changed in Wilson's favor.

Attorneys and checkers representing both parties were on hand to keep a close watch on the official count.

The Democrats will check most closely in Los Angeles and Alameda counties where Hughes polled his largest vote.

It is estimated that it will be more than a week before the count will be completed.

RAILROADS WILL OBEY THE ORDER

Louisville, Ky., Nov. 13.—Charles Paulding, of the New York Central, who said he spoke for the Eastern railroads, announced today before the Interstate Commerce Commission that all the eastern roads will obey Commissioner McChord's order to send back immediately all freight cars they hold above their own equipment.

J. T. Brougher, chief clerk of car records for the Philadelphia and Reading, testified that one cause of freight cars getting lost is that there are five hundred railroads in the United States and shipping clerks are not familiar with all the railroad initials that appear on box cars to identify them.

MANY WANT JOBS

Nate B. Gilliland, probate judge elect, is having his troubles these days. Since his election last week on the Republican ticket, over twenty applications have been filed with him for the three deputy positions. Mr. Gilliland stated Monday that he had not decided upon any of them as yet.

From a reliable source it was stated that Lowell Harness, McDermott, would be named chief deputy, when Mr. Gilliland assumed office. This was neither affirmed nor denied by Mr. Gilliland.

If you have a room which is not occupied you should be using TIMES WANT ADS.

Business Firms Made Attempts To Coerce Employees Votes, Claimed

Chicago, Nov. 13.—United States District Attorney Charles Clyne is today investigating new charges that large Chicago business firms made attempts to coerce votes of their employees last week.

Because of this new development, Clyne said the federal grand jury would postpone its hearing until later in the week. Meanwhile investigators are running down every tip.

Irregularities are said to cover a large territory around Chicago. It is alleged that $350,000 was spent to swing votes in the industrial section of Northern Indiana and that 16,000 votes were bought in Gary, Michigan City, and Lake county, Indiana.

WILL REOPEN CONSULTA DESPITE HER ARREST

New York, Nov. 13.—Undaunted by her arrest for the maintenance of a birth control clinic, Mrs. Margaret Hanger will spend the time remaining before she comes to trial on this charge in reopening the consulta room in Brooklyn which was closed by the police and in getting out the first number of her new magazine "The Birth Control Review."

DEUTSCHLAND MAY MAKE A DASH FOR HOME WITHIN 24 HRS.

New London, Conn., Nov. 13.—Old salt sea dogs, who know weather better than the experts, cast speculative eyes skyward today and allowed that it'd be a great chance for the German submarine sea freighter Deutschland to dash to the open sea. Her cargo was safely stowed, her hands ready for instant shipment and the rumor went out that she might make a run for it before another 24 hours.

Storms have no worry for Captain Koenig.

Famous Spy Is Charged With Blackmailing Bernstorff's Wife

New York, Nov. 13.—Dr. Karl Armagnard Graves, international spy, expressed himself today as confident of freedom from charges of blackmailing Countess Von Bernstorff, the German ambassador's wife.

Letters upon which the blackmailing charges were made in Washington were explained by Graves as containing information regarding the U-S's exploits, upon which he says, Count Von Bernstorff made a stock market "clean up."

Graves avers that the German ambassador was thousands of dollars richer by reason of advance information on the German submarine venture. He declared that the letters, apparently a woman's missives to the embassy, were really the code which Bernstorff would not want revealed. Graves came back here for

Sensational Tenor The First Attraction

The first of the artists recitals of the Ladies' Musical will be Theo Karle, the sensational American tenor. Clippings from various papers tell of Mr. Karle's entertainments as follows:

THEO KARLE

Worcester Evening Post, Sept. 30: "On Artists Night, first honors of the contest fell to Theo Karle. 'His Celeste Aida' won him applause that shook the rafters that had oddly failed to even tremble at his highest tones. Mr. Karle has a tenor voice of great tonal beauty."

Springfield Republican, Sept. 30: "The star of the evening was that admirable soprano, Alma Gluck, but the new tenor, Theo Karle, whose glorious voice well fitted him for such a gala night, divided the honors."

Springfield Daily Republican, Sept. 29: "The tenor, Theo Karle, has one of the most remarkable tenor voices on the concert stage and there is no limit to what he can do. His singing of Cuius Animus was the sensation of the evening and his reception overcame the singer."

The recital will be held Thursday evening in the German Evangelical Sunday school auditorium. Everybody is invited. Those having regular musical tickets will be admitted on those tickets. To non-members the admission is 50 cents. Miss Helen Fugh will be the pianist.

OHIO CITIES ARE IN NEED OF MORE MONEY; RELIEF TO BE ASKED FROM LEGISLATURE

Columbus, Nov. 13.—From present indications, the most important legislation to come before the new Democratic legislature this winter will have to do with the financial relief of Ohio cities.

With Cleveland, Cincinnati, Toledo, Columbus, Akron, Canton, Youngstown and many other cities carrying huge deficits, legislators from these cities are already planning to back measures that will give them more money.

A meeting called by the Youngstown chamber of commerce is scheduled here Wednesday to which chambers of commerce, granges, representatives of the Ohio league of municipalities and others interested in municipal reform have been invited.

CAR EMPLOYEES MUST SIGN AN AGREEMENT OR LOSE THEIR JOBS

Indianapolis, Ind., Nov. 13.—Although the union employees of the Indianapolis street car company were virtually locked out today, cars were apparently running on the normal schedule and no disturbances were reported.

Only 108 men refused to sign the individual working agreement which the company declared they would have to sign or give up their jobs.

A meeting was scheduled for today, when the union men planned to decide on what course they would pursue.

Indianapolis, Ind., Nov. 13.—The question of whether or not union employees of the Indianapolis Street Car company will call a strike, hinged today on a decision to be handed down by the United States court of appeals at Chicago.

The street car company, following the last strike, obtained an injunction in United States district court which would prevent the union from interfering with the operation of cars. The decision, handed down by Judge Anderson, was appealed.

Officials of the union stated that they expected a decision from the court of appeals today. If the decision is unfavorable to the union, the men will not call a strike.

ONE BIKE STOLEN; THREE ARE RETURNED TO THE VICTIM

Whoever it was that stole George Hunt's bicycle believed in compound interest for early Sunday morning, when the boy's father, G. D. Hunt, Eleventh street, got up, he found three bicycles in his front yard.

Mr. Hunt notified Police Sergeant James Smith of the find. One wheel was identified as belonging to the Hunt boy. The other two were taken to police headquarters.

A. F. of L. In Session

Baltimore, Md., Nov. 13.—With the administration forces pretty well whipped into line at a series of conferences between the leaders held at the Hotel Rennert yesterday, the American Federation of Labor began its regular session in the Garden theatre today.

The first session followed a parade of the delegates through the principal streets, headed by the federation band. Delegates were present from all parts of the United States and Canada and from several foreign countries.

The report of the executive council was read at the meeting this morning.

A membership of 2,072,702, an increase of 126,355 during the year, was shown in the report of Secretary Frank Morrison. There are now 21,711 local unions in the 111 national and international unions and 705 local trade bodies and federal labor unions directly affiliated with the federation.

The delegates attending the conventions are this year entitled to a voting strength of 21,906 compared with 20,433 a year ago.

Democrats In Debt

New York, Nov. 13.—The Democratic committee is $300,000 in debt after conducting the campaign for President Wilson's reelection, according to an announcement from Henry Morgenthau, the treasurer.

Morgenthau, plans to raise $200,000 of this deficit through popular subscriptions in two hundred American towns, the announcement said, and will raise the rest through appeals to various Democratic organizations.

Auto Driver Sued For $5,000 Damages

Five thousand dollars damages are sought by William M. Dougherty for injuries alleged sustained when an automobile driven by Harry G. Copeland struck and knocked him down on Rhodes avenue, New Boston, August 29, this year. Dougherty filed suit in common pleas court Monday through his attorneys, Blair & Kimble.

In the petition the plaintiff says that the defendant was operating his automobile while under the influence of liquor and that he drove around the wrong side of a street car on Rhodes avenue and struck him. The injuries sustained, he declares, were of a permanent nature.

germ. It is infectious during the whole course of the disease. There is a catarrhal inflammation of the throat and bronchial tubes and increased sensitiveness of all the child's nerves. The cough is usually present two or three weeks before the wheezing appears, which lasts from four to ten weeks. The patient should be isolated from all other children.

Richard P. Hobson To Speak Here

Lieutenant Richard Pearson Hobson, former congressman from Alabama and who was defeated for a seat in the senate will deliver a prohibition address in Trinity church next Sunday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock, announcement of the meeting being made from local pulpits Sunday.

Lieutenant Hobson is one of the several great prohibition workers being sent out in the state by the Ohio State Anti-Saloon league. Mr. Hobson's favorite talk is on the subject, "The Great Destroyer" and many Portsmouth people who have heard him deliver the talk say he always has a message of great interest. Trinity church is expected to be filled Sunday afternoon when Mr. Hobson begins his address.

The State Anti-Saloon league is starting on its fight for state-wide prohibition on which a vote may be taken next year.

Files Suit For Divorce

Gross neglect, extreme cruelty and habitual drunkenness, are the grounds cited for a divorce and alimony suit instituted in the local common pleas court Monday by Minnie Zornes. The petition avers that the husband, William Zornes has been inebriated since the couple were married at West Union, April 14, 1895. A temporary restraining order, prohibiting the defendant from calling upon the plaintiff was allowed by Judge Thomas C. Bently, probate court. Attorney Nate B. Gilliland represents the plaintiff.

Mr. Gilbert Home R. L. Gilbert has returned from Columbus, where he called on the G. Edwin Smith Shoe company, whom he represents in Michigan and Indiana. Highest standard materials used by Brehmer, the Painter.

Monthly Meeting The monthly session of the German Evangelical Brotherhood will be held at the Sunday school Tuesday evening. Every member of the Brotherhood is urged to attend, as important business is to be transacted. To Exchange Pulpits On next Sunday evening Rev. George P. Horn, pastor of the Second Presbyterian church, and Rev. Merchant S. Bush, pastor of the First Presbyterian church, will exchange pulpits.

Health Notes

Issued by the Anti-Tuberculosis League of Scioto Co.: Resistance to tuberculosis infection varies with age, but is least in childhood.

Fresh air is the cheapest thing in the world, and yet how stingy some people are with it! A change of climate will not cure consumption. A strange climate is often harmful. Thick, heavy bed-clothing is not conducive to restful sleep. Keep the teeth clean and in good condition, for bad teeth are the cause of many ills. Nowhere is the spitting evil more apparent than in this city. Have you ever heard of anyone being arrested for spitting on the walks?

Last year's sale of Red Cross seals in Charleston averaged five to every inhabitant. Portsmouth should do as well. Is your baby in apparent good health? And if not, why don't you find out the trouble and so build up his constitution that he will be better protected against the dangers of contracting tuberculosis? Don't buy second-hand clothing or furniture, unless properly disinfected, and don't occupy a house which has been recently occupied by a consumptive unless the premises have been thoroughly cleaned. Whooping cough is an acute infectious disease caused by a specific

ISSUES ULTIMATUM TO JUDGE IN EFFORT TO SECURE CHILDREN

An ultimatum was issued to Judge Thomas C. Beatty, probate court by Mrs. James Gregg Monday afternoon, when she called to demand the release of her two children from the Scioto County Children's home. Mrs. Gregg gave the judge twenty-four hours to release her children and added that if they were not sent home at the end of that time she would take her imbecile son, Linnie, to the probate office and leave him there.

Judge Beatty stated that he was unable to determine upon his course of action in the matter, but promised to call at the Gregg home, Tenth street, Monday evening.

George and Alfred Gregg, sons of Mr. and Mrs. James Gregg, were placed in the Children's Home by Judge Beatty, following the tragic death of Mary Adelaide, aged 3 and Jane Hesel, the unfortunate child's grandmother. Both died from the result of injuries sustained when run over by a B. & O. switch engine on Tenth street, near Broadway street last winter.

The destitute circumstances of the family were learned by the juvenile authorities at the time of the tragic accident and the young children were taken away from the parents and placed in the local home.

A few days ago the father called at the probate office and demanded the release of his children. His demand was ignored by Judge Beatty and since then the mother has been calling.

Mrs. Clyde Smith, of Union Mills, successfully planned a surprise Sunday to celebrate the fifty-fifth birthday anniversary of her mother, Mrs. Albert Bookman. An excellent dinner was served at noon. Every one brought well-filled baskets and the feast was fit for a king. Those present were: Mrs. Andrew Smith and daughter, Louise; Mrs. Ira Blair, Mrs. Charles Morris, Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Smith, daughters, Ruth and Alma, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Bookman and daughters, Louis and Ferrel.

Dr. and Mrs. Jos. Gill and children, Mr. and Mrs. Corson Gordon and son, Scott, motored to Chillicothe, Sunday, and were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Gordon.

Mrs. J. A. Gordon and daughter, Doretha Phillips, and Mrs. William Scott have returned to Chillicothe, after spending several days at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Carson Gordon, of Third street.

Mrs. Ellen Stanton and daughter, Miss Nell Stanton, and Mary Vallee Harold, daughter of Vallee Harold, accompanied by Frank Stanton, will leave Thursday for Martinsville, Ind., where they will spend several weeks. Mrs. Stanton has not been in good health since the latter part of September.

Dr. O. W. Robe was in Cincinnati, Sunday, and visited his daughter, Miss Ada Robe, who came over there from Oxford, where she is attending school.

Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Bierley and son, Harold, of Hutchins street, motored to Manchester, Sunday.

The infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. J. Whalen was baptized Sunday at St. Joseph's church, Huntington, W. Va. Mrs. Nora Mahaly and Ed Whalen acted as sponsors. They named her Marjorie Jean.

Miss Edith Roberts has as guest Miss Mabel Julian, of Paris, Illinois. Saturday evening she entertained with a party in her honor. The guest list included the Misses Mabel Julian, Helen Hehl, Edith Lakeman, Bertha Bremer, Edith Jane Roberts and Messrs. Elmer Warner, Lewis Harris, Harry Babcock, Mike Matthews and Emmett Swishelmin. Later Miss Roberts entertained the girls with a slumber party.

Miss Edith Roberts entertained with a dinner party Sunday at the Manhattan hotel for the pleasure of her guest, Miss Mabel Julian of Paris, Illinois. Those in the party were Edith Lakeman, Helen Hehl, Bertha Bremer, Mabel Julian and Edith Roberts.

Many parties are being planned for the pleasure of Miss Edith Robert's attractive guest, Miss Mabel Julian of Paris, Ill.

Local Men At Meeting

Several members of the Tri-State Credit Association of this city left Monday for Charleston, where they will attend a meeting, to be followed by a banquet given by the Credit Men's Association of that city.

Was Held To Grand Jury

On a charge of failure to provide for an illegitimate child, Lawrence Kelley, young man recently arrested at New Boston, was arraigned before Squire J. W. Byron Monday and pleaded not guilty. He was held to grand jury in the sum of $500. Being unable to furnish bond, he was remanded to the county jail. The charge was filed by Emma Hickman.

OBITUARY

Mrs. Mary Cooper

Death at 6:30 o'clock Monday morning claimed Mrs. Mary Cooper, widow of the late Peter Cooper, the final summons coming at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Dora Abrams, 924 John street, where the deceased had made her home for some time. Mrs. Cooper had been dangerously ill for some time.

Mrs. Cooper was born on Pond Creek and was a life-long resident of Scioto county. She first married Floyd Sly. Later she remarried, her second husband being Peter Cooper, who passed to the Great Beyond about 12 years ago. The deceased had been a resident of Portsmouth for 32 years.

She is survived by five daughters, Mrs. Dora Abrams of John street, Mrs. Maggie Arnold of 1225 Fifteenth street, Dollie, Nora and Ella Cooper of Waller street, and one son, John Sly, of Elm street, this city. She also leaves three sisters, Mrs. Ella Mershon of Kinney street, Mrs. June Rudity and Mrs. Malissa Deho of Bear Creek, Lucasville, and one brother, James Bowman who is in the West.

Mrs. Cooper was an active member of the Christian church of this city. The remains will be removed to the home of Mrs. Maggie Arnold, Fifteenth street, from where the funeral will be held, Wednesday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock with Rev. George P. Horst in charge. Burial will be in Greenlawn.

Martin Giles

The West Side lost another of its well-known and respected citizens Sunday, when Martin Giles passed away about midnight at his home near Carey's Run, the final summons coming after a two months' illness of uraemic poisoning. Death did not come unexpectedly to the family, who were aware of his serious condition for the last week, but his host of friends were shocked Monday to hear the news of the death.

Martin Giles was born in Ireland and came to this country when about 19 years of age. He settled in Virginia and came to Scioto county about thirty-two years ago. His wife died twenty-five years ago. Mr. Giles had led a retired life for ten years prior to which time he followed the work of a stone mason.

The deceased is survived by two sons, Charles and Frank Giles, of Cleveland, and one daughter, Mrs. William Appleton, who made her home with her father. The funeral will be held from the home at ten o'clock Wednesday morning, with Rev. Davidson in charge.

Silas Saffel

South Webster lost one of its most highly respected Christian citizens in death of Mr. Silas Saffel on November 9, 1916.

Silas Saffel was born at Somerset, Perry Co., Ohio, on June 2, 1841. At age of 21 years he enlisted in 62nd Reg., Co. C, O. V. I., where he served until close of the war. In spring of 1865 he was married to Miss Lucinda Strait, of Millersburg, Ohio. In 1879 they moved to Brown county, Ohio, residing there until 1904, when they moved to Portsmouth, Ohio, and from there to South Webster in 1909, where he resided until his death, aged 75 years 5 months and seven days.

He leaves a wife and one sister to mourn their loss. Funeral services were held at M. E. church at South Webster on Sunday, November 12, at 2 o'clock. Rev. Masters of South Webster officiated, assisted by Revs. Brundau and Carmichael of South Webster. The G. A. R. and Ladies' Aid escorted the body to the church.

Interment was at South Webster cemetery. Although not enjoying good health in the last eight years and rapidly failing within the last year he was of a cheerful temperament, loved by all and will be greatly missed.

Mode F. Mackoy

Death came without warning to Mode F. Mackoy, Saturday, Nov. 11, at 5 p. m., at his home in Wheelersburg. Apparently he was in the best of health, standing talking to his nephew, when he suddenly fell to the ground and expired in a few minutes, although everything possible was done to revive him.

He was born Jan. 20, 1863, at Siloam, Ky., and was a son of H. C. and S. E. Mackoy. He was married to Nellie Gammon, of Siloam, in 1894, who died in 1895, leaving one daughter, Bessie. Later he married Elizabeth Brant, of Lucasville, who with one son, Brant, and the daughter for survive him, also two brothers, J. B. and M. E. Mackoy, of Wheelersburg, and one sister, Mrs. H. F. Ruggles, of Louisville, Ky.

Early in life he identified himself with the Christian church at Siloam, at which he was an officer and Sunday school superintendent for 18 years.

Seven years ago he moved to Wheelersburg and engaged in farming. Three years later he became a member of The Wheelersburg Milling Company firm with his two brothers, J. B. and M. E. Mackoy, in which business he was actively engaged at the time of his death.

He was a man of upright character and universally liked. His sudden death was a great shock to his many friends.

The funeral services will be conducted from the home at 10 a. m. Tuesday. Burial in Wheelersburg cemetery.

Eight Persons Imperiled As Street Car And Auto Collide

The lives of eight people were imperiled in a serious collision between a street car and an automobile at Eleventh and Clay streets at 1:35 Sunday afternoon. The automobile driven by C. M. Kent of Oak Hill and owned by Jacob Wole of that village was hit by a westbound street car in charge of Motorman E. Redden. The occupants of the car, C. M. Kent, who was at the wheel, Alford Kent, John Kent, Pauline Cooper, Pearl Cooper, Henrietta Cooper, Anna Cooper and Eunice Kent were thrown to the street, but escaped injury. Drs. J. S. Rardin and Dr. J. W. Jordan were summoned to the scene as it was first believed several of the occupants had been seriously injured. Mr. Kent was driving his car north on Clay street, and, he says, he did not see the car coming west until too late to turn his machine out of the path of the street car. They collided with much force.

High Class Musicales At First Christain

The people of Portsmouth, thanks to the action of the Women's Union and Loyal Men of the First Christian church, will have the opportunity on Friday night, November 24, of hearing one of the finest musical entertainments ever booked in the Peerless City. Reference is made to the Ada Roach company, who will render "The Heart of the Immigrant." This company will come here highly recommended by the Redpath Lyceum Bureau and is said to be one of their star numbers. The company is composed of six members, four ladies and two gentlemen and they are especially selected for their ability and the manner in which they work together. In the production of "The Heart of the Immigrant" they will render songs of the different countries represented, telling of the first impressions gained on coming to America. Many of the numbers will carry a vein of humor. Miss Roach has surrounded herself with a competent and talented company of musicians and character actors and their pretty little musical play will be one of the best things ever staged in Portsmouth. Owing to the great cost in bringing the company here, it will be necessary to charge an admission of 50 cents for adults and 25 cents for children. The church was enabled to secure this attraction, owing to the fact that the company had an open date. It is hoped the people will patronize the musical in goodly number. Tickets are now being offered for sale.

Steamboat Parade To Feature Meeting

Cincinnati, Nov. 13.—An immense steamboat parade on the Ohio river from Huntington, W. Va., to Dam No. 29 will feature the program of the Ohio Valley Improvement Association's convention, according to Executive Secretary W. C. Culkins, of the Chamber of Commerce, who yesterday returned from a conference with President John L. Vance, of the Association, and the officers of the Huntington Chamber of Commerce. Steamboat men are being solicited to put every available boat

Inspection Meeting

The ladies of Vienna Camp Sons of Veterans will meet in regular session at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harry M. Sickles, 1202 Second street, Friday evening, Nov. 17. This will be the yearly inspection meeting, and the president, Mrs. Harry Sickles, desires that every member of the auxiliary attend this meeting, also all members of Vienna Camp will be cordially welcome. Mrs. Cora S. Kennedy, of Bellefontaine, president of S. V. Auxiliary, Ohio Division, will name an inspecting officer who will be present at this meeting. Mrs. Sickles requests that all members and members of camp who will attend, notify Mrs. Sickles by Thursday evening, either by card or phone (998-R).

Returns To Norfolk
Frank Bates, formerly an assistant electrician in the Selby shoe factory, but now in the United States navy and stationed at the training station at Norfolk, who has been speeding a twelve-day furlough here, returned to Norfolk Sunday. He is well pleased with his new berth in the navy, and expects to be sent to the Chinese station in the next few weeks. He will serve as an electrician in the navy and expects to be a past-master at his trade at the expiration of his term of enlistment.

Looking For Suspects
Chief Clark has been at Marion, O., since Tuesday trying to capture Harvey McGlothlin and Pete Parks, wanted in connection with the recent big robbery of hides from the N. & W.

The two are said to have disposed of some of the hides in Ironton. When they went to the junk dealer there after their money they saw several police officers hiding about the place and they took to their heels, the police say.

MILLER'S ANTISEPTIC OIL KNOWN AS
has perhaps relieved more sufferers than any other known remedy in the same length of time. More than one hundred thousand bottles sold in the past four months under an absolute guarantee to give satisfaction or money refunded, and only three bottles have been returned. Many have testified that they had suffered with rheumatism and lumbago until they had been forced to give up their work because they could not use their limbs. Some who could not even raise their arms above their heads have been restored and are now praising this wonderful oil that other sufferers may be relieved. No wonder this great oil of treatment has sprung into such tremendous popularity in so brief a time and is so much wanted today by thousands throughout the South. For rheumatism, neuralgia, lumbago and aching joints or any kind of an ache or pain, it is said to be without an equal. For sore throat, croup, diphtheria and tonsillitis and cuts and burns, it has been found most effective. This wonderful new oil remedy that is producing such results throughout the country is now for sale by all leading druggists. Accept no substitutes for this is nothing like it. Get ten and five cent bottles or money refunded. Geo. W. Freund.

Grocer Is Held Up By Bold Highwayman

"Put up your hands! I want all the money you got in the cash drawer, and be quick about it!" said a tall, slender man, wearing in addition to his other clothes, a gray overcoat, a cap and weighing about 145 pounds, to S. J. Cooper, who conducts a grocery store on Lincoln street, near Seventh. It was Saturday night at 8:45 o'clock, and Mr. Cooper attempted to detain the bold highwayman, but he leveled the revolver at him and threatened to snap the trigger unless his orders were complied with. Mr. Cooper stepped to his cash drawer and turned over between $15 and $18 to the daring thief, who backed out of the door with his revolver aimed at Mr. Cooper and darted down a nearby alley and escaped. The police were notified, but the thief made a clean get-away.

"I was talking to my wife when the fellow came in," Mr. Cooper said today. "As the man walked up to me he pulled his gun and told me to give him the money in the drawer. I looked him over carefully, and I am sure I could identify the man if I saw him again. Mr. Cooper has owned the store just a month.

Knights Will Visit Sciotoville Lodge

Magnolia, Massie and Peerless lodges, Knights of Pythias, and visiting knights will go to Sciotoville tonight to visit their brethren there. Two special cars have been chartered for the trip, and it is expected they will be crowded to the guard rails by the enthusiastic knights, as the knights at Sciotoville have a reputation as entertainers extending over several states. The cars will leave the K. P. Castle hall, Chillicothe and Third streets. The Knights serve notice on Billy Butt-In that if he stages another such a down-pour as that on the Wheelersburg trip two weeks since, their force goat will be out looking for him.

Branch Rickey Heads New O. W. U. Association

Delaware, Ohio, Nov. 13.—The first annual celebration of the founding of Ohio Wesleyan University was held here Saturday, bringing back several hundreds of graduates. Addresses were made by President J. W. Hoffman, Branch Rickey, J. Wesley Page and Coach F. W. Dixon.

A gorgeous parade was given through the principal street. Branch Rickey, whose name is prominently mentioned for the presidency of the National Baseball Commission, was elected president of the association formed here Saturday of all men who have won in athletics here.

Trinity Bible Class

The big class had an attendance of 146 last Sunday morning as the new officers are taking hold with a vim.

President Oakes and Secretary Newman are proving that the class picked the right men for the job. The class has a big membership scheme started and with every man "boosting" it you want to keep your eye on the score board next Sunday morning. Prof. Finney gave an account of the big Sunday school meeting at Chillicothe and was proud of the showing Scioto county made there. Being one lesson behind on the schedule "Paul's Shipwreck" was the subject of the morning session. The teacher stated that it was through the reading of this chapter by Lord Nelson that gave him a suggestion how to maneuver his ships and win the battle of Copenhagen. Does God use the supernatural when natural agencies will accomplish the desired end?

The class all agreed that a fellow has to pray and hustle at the same time and the day of praying with folded hands has passed. Everybody on ship board got safely to shore but they had to swim or hold tight to a board.

The teacher told of Paul gathering the sticks and building the fire that the others might warm and showing his brotherly love for suffering humanity. He claimed that Christians should keep the fires of love still burning and give this old world something it needs more than anything else. The natives were practicing Christianity when they ministered to these shipwrecked people and God rewards the heathen who is living up to his little candlelight, while we who are living under the bright glare of modern electric light teachings have much more weighty responsibilities thrust upon our shoulders.

The bright spot in the lesson was in the discussion over the viper bite on St. Paul's hand. Mr. J. B. Frastick and Mr. T. S. Siler claimed it was no "accident" but a great miracle performed before those people. This skirmish brought some of the heavy guns into play and Prof. Appel and W. D. Donaldson dropped some big shells over each other's way over the question of natural and supernatural phenomena.

Next Sunday's lesson will be the regular schedule, "From Melita to Rome."

FIRST CHRISTIAN CHURCH NEWS

Teachers and Workers' Congress will meet at the church tonight. Many important matters will come up for discussion and everyone interested is asked to be present. Time 7:30.

Mrs. E. J. Meacham, wife of a former pastor of the church, is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Howland. Mrs. Meacham was accompanied by Rev. Meacham's mother and they will spend at least one week here. A hearty welcome is always extended to Mrs. Meacham who has thousands of friends here, and they always make her visits here enjoyable ones.

Prayer meeting Wednesday evening. Leader O. D. Morgan. Teachers' training class session will follow immediately. Come and help and learn.

Section No. Two will meet at the church Thursday afternoon. The officers will be glad to have you come and help.

Section Three will meet in a quilting session at the home of Mrs. F. W. Sheridan, 809 John street, Thursday afternoon. This means work—come prepared.

The Loyal Bereans will meet with Mrs. C. R. Oakley at the parsonage, Thursday evening, November 16. Every member of the Bible Classes Will Have A Mass Meeting Tuesday Night

Men actively identified with Bible study in the various Sunday schools of this city will meet in Bigelow M. E. church Tuesday evening at 7:30 o'clock to hear reports of delegates to a meeting held in Chillicothe last Friday when the Southern Ohio Federation of Men's Bible Classes met in that city.

An effort will be made to have most of the Sunday schools represented as plans are already under way to take up Bible study in this city as it never has been before. Portsmouth had the largest delegation present at the Chillicothe meeting and the prime movers in the movement here are confident that within a short space of time more men will be studying the Bible in this town than any time in its history. Various committees will report tomorrow night, according to John McMillan and the meeting will be one of much importance as steps will be taken for the formation of state-wide Bible classes.

Robberies, Fights, Brawls, Etc. Fill Court On "Unlucky 13th"

With the thirteenth of the month as a starter for good luck, police court was opened Monday morning by Mayor J. H. Kaps with a capacity docket. Petty robberies, fights, drunken brawls and speed violators were listed. Several of the cases were continued until this evening.

A warning to police court characters was issued by Mayor Kaps shortly after court convened. He announced that it would be the policy of his administration this winter to send the habitual violators to the county jail for the winter so that the citizens would not be bothered with their escapades.

The first case called for trial was referred by L. B. Wallace, assistant manager of Woolworth's five and ten cent store. He charged a man giving the name of Edward Hildebrandt, who claimed Mt. Gilead as his home, with stealing articles valued at 35 cents. The robbery occurred Saturday evening.

REV. G. W. JENKINS FIRM ENDORSER OF NERV-WORTH

Cumberland Pastor "Found" Nerv-Worth and Tells About It

This Nerv-Worth endorser is the widely known pastor of the McKendree Methodist Episcopal church of Cumberland, Md. He experienced the value of Nerv-Worth while in Youngstown some time ago. He says:

"I would say in giving my testimonial to the effectiveness of Nerv-Worth that I have not been influenced by any argument of Nerv-Worth doing what it claims to do in the case of nervous indigestion, nervousness and general weakness.

"I have used it in my family with the result that I am willing to risk this testimonial more for the good of others than the company of Nerv-Worth manufacturers, believing it will help the suffering wherever it is possible for Nerv-Worth to reach the case.

"I am yours sincerely in truth as far as I can discern it in the properties of Nerv-Worth."

G. W. JENKINS, Pastor of the McKendree Methodist Episcopal church, Cumberland, Md.

Rev. Jenkins says Nerv-Worth did wonders for his daughter. She has used about one bottle and is a new woman, after trying all kinds of medicines and doctoring for years, with no success. He concluded to try Nerv-Worth and only PART OF ONE BOTTLE brought the answer. He is a very grateful man.

Your dollar back at Fisher & Streich's pharmacy, Portsmouth, O., if Nerv-Worth does not benefit you. Ask Demonstrator Derwenter for a sample dose.

Good For Olive Hill

The village of Olive Hill, Ky., is to get a new $10,000 water works and electric light plant, the voters of that place having last Tuesday voted favorably on a $10,000 bond issue to cover the cost of the proposed improvements.

Suit Against Local Contractors

Judgment for $3750 is asked against the S. Monroe and Sons company, local contractors in charge of the erection of the new flood wall addition, by The Blaw Steel Construction company, Pittsburgh, Pa., in an action for money filed in the local court of common pleas Monday morning by Attorneys Bamoun & Bamoun.

In the petition the petitioners say that on June 13, 1916, a contract was entered into by the two parties mentioned, in which the defendant agreed to lease 200 linear feet of steel "wall forms" to be used in the construction of the flood wall. For the use of the forms, the defendants agreed to pay $1750 at the end of 30 days; $1000 in 60 days and $1000 in 90 days.

The forms were shipped, the plaintiff avers, on July 14 and 15 this year. Judgment for the entire amount is asked by the plaintiff.

Returns To Capital City

George Rinley, of Columbus, Ohio representative of the Selby Shoe Company, has returned to the Capital City after spending several days at the factory of his firm, having been accompanied here by two buyers.

Robberies, Fights, Brawls, Etc. Fill Court On "Unlucky 13th"

Wallace stated that Hildebrandt had been under observation for several weeks, having been caught taking some articles during K. P. Carnival week. Saturday evening he came to the store and one of the clerks called attention to him. Wallace said he put on his hat so that Hildebrandt would not know that he was connected with the store and followed. He said he saw Hildebrandt take three articles.

Hildebrandt declared that he was intoxicated and did not remember talking the articles and added that he was sorry that the trouble had occurred. He was fined $25 and costs and committed to the county jail until paid.

Tilden Skaggs was fined $10 and costs and ordered to remain away from his wife. Mrs. Skaggs appeared against her husband and told the court that he had come home drunk Saturday evening and had threatened her. Skaggs had been sent to the workhouse by Judge Beatty a few months ago on a charge of failure to provide.

Saturday evening, some one reached over a screen which stands in front of a display window at the Capt. Fred Winters' saloon, Market street, and took a pint bottle of whiskey. Captain Winters in police court, told Mayor Kaps that James Henderson had called his attention to the theft and that an officer was sent after the fellow. A few moments later the officer appeared with a fellow whom Henderson identified.

The fellow was taken to the police station and gave his name as William Murphy. In police court he pleaded not guilty to the charge. Mayor Kaps continued the case for investigation.

Jake Seelye and Osie Kountz pleaded guilty to charges of drunkenness and disorderly conduct and were each fined $10 and costs. Information received by the police was that Seelye went to the Kountz home, rear of 912 Twelfth street Sunday and became involved in an argument with the woman. He accused her of stealing ten dollars from him. A fight ensued in which the Kountz woman was struck.

Osie Kountz said she had Seelye's money but that she had been instructed by him to hold it if he became intoxicated. Harvey Powell and James Trice pleaded guilty to charges of intoxication and were each fined $5.

George F. Drennen, claiming to be a special officer at the steel plant, was fined $10 on a charge of disorderly conduct. Drennen was arrested at the Norfolk and Western depot Saturday evening. Harvey Wise, Eliza Shaw and Roy Sisle were each fined for fighting at the John Arthur grocery store, North Waller street. Wise drew $10; Shaw, $25 and costs and Sisle $10.

Olie and George Baker each drew $10 fines on charges of disorderly conduct. Charles Aplor and Burt Nolen, charged with fighting each drew $10 and costs.

VAN LOTELL HIT BY STREET CAR

Run down by a street car as he was crossing the street near Second and Chillicothe Saturday night at 7:30 o'clock Van "Yaller" Lotell was badly injured. He was unconscious when carried to Dr. W. E. Gault's office.

An examination showed that Lotell had suffered a three inch scalp wound on the back of his head, which required five stitches to close, his right ankle was sprained and one was bruised about the arms and shoulders. After being revived he told Dr. Gault that he had started across the street from the mayor's office and did not see a westbound street car approaching until too late, it striking him and knocking him down. Looking by his body cleared the tracks.

After Lotell's injuries were dressed he was taken to his home, Gay and Mill streets.

Freak Election Bets

Stewart Flagg, a heater in the Whitaker-Glessner plant, and who resides at 631 Third street, believes he is the unluckiest man in the city. And all because he bet Hughes would beat Wilson.

As a result of losing two bets made with Frank Russell of the Bismarck Cafe, Flagg had to wheel Mr. Russell in a wheelbarrow to the Washington hotel Saturday night and one day this week Flagg must roll a peanut around the Government Square on Gallia street with a broom straw.

Two Conventions Were Held Sunday

The Baptist church at New Boston was crowded last night at the closing session of the Clay Township Sunday School convention. A record crowd was out, and a helpful and enjoyable session held.

Rev. M. H. Bridwell presided and introduced the speakers. The big choir opened the evening's program with an inspiring song service. The first speaker of the evening was M. H. F. Kinsey, county secretary, whose theme was along general lines of Sunday school work. He emphasized modern methods in organizing and conducting a Sunday school as well as the Sunday school class. He believed the Sunday school should provide for the social needs of the young people of the community as well as for their spiritual needs; that the church property should be used more for social purposes. He then gave a workable social program for the Sunday school in a small town. He emphasized the fact also that the Sunday school should be an educational and evangelizing agency as well.

J. H. Finney followed with an address on the subject: "How to Teach the Lesson." He taught the regular Sunday school lesson for the day, which proved to be a very pleasing feature.

The speakers of the afternoon session of the Clay Township convention were: Miss Broadstone, C. W. Ridenour and Russell Rutledge. Miss Broadstone's theme was: "How to Enlist and Hold the Girl of the Teen Age in the Sabbath School." It was a splendid address and one full of valuable information. C. W. Ridenour told in a very interesting way how to hold the boy in the Sunday school during the adolescent period. Russell Rutledge, the boy orator, carried off the laurels of the day with his splendid address: "The Organized Boys Class." At the close of the afternoon's session the following officers were elected for Clay township: F. E. Cooper, president; Asa Carter, vice president; Herbert Ricker, secretary; Miss Stella Smith, treasurer.

Bloom township convention was held at the South Webster United Brethren church in charge of Rev. Fred E. Roe. W. W. Gates, county president, presented the State and County Sunday School Association work, followed by Howard Lowry, who spoke along the lines of boys work in Sunday school. J. H. Finney taught the lesson for the day, after which the following officers were elected: W. H. Lieve, president; George Knost, vice president; Miss Stella McCall, secretary; J. W. Shope, treasurer.

Where Is the Ford?

If it is in the garage for the winter, you are going back and forth in crowded street cars. The muggy air is full of germs of cold, catarrh and worse—all of which you take home to your family.

The mouth and nose are places where these germs enter and lodge. You should kill them before they spread their infection through your membranes and through your family.

Wash your mouth and gargle your throat every evening with a glass full of water into which you have put five to ten drops of Icyolite. It will kill germs promptly.

You can use more if you wish, for it is harmless to you, although many times as strong as peroxide and even carbolic acid. Other germicides are often acid or poisonous or just fresh their strength away without killing the germs.

Icyolite is a sodium hypochlorite solution. A U. S. Government report has been published showing that 130 antiseptics were recently tested in military hospitals of Europe and sodium hypochlorite is declared by the surgeons to be the most economical and efficient antiseptic of them all.

Although many times more powerful than the harmful antiseptics which contain poisons, acids, mercury or dangerous preservatives, Icyolite is even safer than the weak and ineffective peroxides. It is clean, clear and harmless as water—but powerful. Any druggist can supply Icyolite in 25 and 50 ct. bottles. General Laboratories, Madison, Wisconsin.

GOSSARD CORSETS

LOOK TO YOUR SHOES

"Look To Your Shoes," was the theme of a splendid sermon delivered by Dr. C. B. Chandler, pastor of the Bigelow Methodist church Sunday morning.

In part the sermon was: "Foolhardy the lumberman who, in the spring time, does not look to his shoes. Dancing pumps are not safe in the dance of the logs. Foolhardy the athlete in the hundred yard dash, who does not look to his shoes, for the race may be lost, because of a loose string. Foolhardy the soldier if he would fight a winning fight and remain a victor on the field, if he look not to his shoes.

"A little while ago an article appeared in one of the daily papers with this title, 'Boots and shoes may be vitally determining factors in the war.' And allowing for exaggeration, is it not a reasonable thing to assume that good durable, well-fitting boots are part of the requisite armor for all soldiers who are called to long heavy tramps and dreary stations in wet and soaking trenches, whose feet are cut by sharpened sticks, concealed to main unwary feet. Therefore it is good counsel to any soldier to look to his shoes.

Paul declares that the Christian soldier must have shoes of preparedness or readiness. An English commander summoned to the Horse Guards, was asked 'How long will it take for you to be ready to go to Seinde?' 'Half an hour,' said he, and in three quarters of an hour he was in the train, on his road to conquer a kingdom. Let the Christian be prepared for attack and defense, and always ready for the march. 'Always ready' is the motto of a Scotch family. 'Ready, are, ready,' is a good word for every Christian soldier.

Be ready for unexpected attacks. Nothing happens in this world except the unexpected. The sudden assaults are the disastrous ones, and unless our footing is good, we shall be tumbled over by the onset of our antagonist. Two things are essential, solid ground to stand on and good soldier boots for grip.

'Be ready for the march and ready for the attack, put on the shoes of alert obedience which the gospel of peace provides.

'First let me go and bury my father,' but the answer like an arrow flies back, 'Come, follow me.'

'Old Adam, the servant of Orlando, in 'As You Like It,' makes the true ringing answer for us all, 'Go on, Master, I will follow thee to the last gasp, with truth and loyalty.'

'What a fellowship, what an army would there be if our Leader could hear us this day give such an answer as that!

'When Donatello, the great sculptor of the figure of St. George, had finished his work, all Florence waited for the prince of sculptors, Michael Angelo, to come and look it over. At length he came. He found the pose to be perfect, the brow serene, the eye gleaming, the mien magnificent, the foot ready for the step.

'Now march!' he cried. It seemed ready to step down from its pedestal. It was a thing alive. And that is what I say to you, 'Now, march!' What a task we have! What wealth of resource! What a leader! Now March!"

HOLY REDEEMER CHURCH NOTES

The Forty Hours' Devotions, which is being held at Holy Redeemer church, was solemnly opened Sunday morning at 7:30 by the sweet music of the church choir.

The three altars, especially the main altar, were all aglow with the beauty of many burning tapers, pot-pourris and luxuriant snow-white chrysanthemums. The high mass of exposition was celebrated by the pastor, Rev. J. E. McGuire, who took occasion to warmly congratulate the Catholic Foresters on the splendid Catholic spirit which they manifested by turning out in large numbers to assist at the impressive services and to receive Communion in a body.

The Communion services were truly inspiring, over five hundred communicants having approached the holy table. Two hundred school children, dressed in white, bearing flowers, singing sweetly, preceded by the white-robed altar-server as processions, and two candle-bearers, six pretty maidens who respectively carried beautiful symbols of the cross, anchor, heart, chalice, wheat and grapes, typical of sacrifice and sacrament of the Eucharist, marched orderly around the interior of the church, followed by the Celebrant, who carried a golden monstrance in which the Blessed Sacrament was enshrined.

In the evening the church was thronged with an overflow audience, among whom were many non-Catholics, who gave reverent heed to the holy words of the eloquent Passionist missionary, whose subject of instruction was "Frequent Communion." All the services are attended by large throngs. The pastor is assisted by Father Bernadine, who is conducting the exercises, and also by Fathers Carey, Meade and Vonville. Confessions will be heard this afternoon and evening after the devotions.

The masses tomorrow will be said at the following hours: 4:30, 6:15 and 8 o'clock, when the beautiful exercises will be brought to a solemn close.

The House Warming will take place at the Sisters' new home on Officers street, Thursday evening, at 7:30.

The management of this social, which is in good hands, insures happy success.

Our First Sale of Suits at 1-4 Reduction!

This has been mighty fine weather for getting out but awfully bad for the selling of winter suits. For what inducement the temperature has failed to give for the purchase of suits we must now substitute reduced prices.

We therefore, beginning today, offer our entire line of women's and misses' suits at a straight reduction of twenty-five per cent from the regular marked prices.

These suits have been selling at $15.00 to $65.00. You now get your choice at 1-4 off.

The assortment as you can easily guess consists of as fine a lot as our buyers were able to secure in the eastern markets. Not a suit was bought for special sale purposes but every garment had to pass the rigid Anderson test before being admitted to our stock. We feel that it would be extremely difficult to find a stock of suits that would appeal more to Portsmouth people, even at regular prices. And this one-fourth reduction should be a tremendous inducement to come at once for the choicest styles.

$20.00 Suits	For	$15.00
25.00 Suits	For	18.75
30.00 Suits	For	22.50
40.00 Suits	For	30.00

ONE HUNDRED SUITS TO CHOOSE FROM. COME NOW.

Two Hundred and Fifty Sample Shapes 98c, $1.50 and $2.50

Through a special purchase we are now in a position to offer you choice of a magnificent lot of silk velvet shapes, two hundred and fifty in the lot at 98c, $1.50 and $2.50.

These shapes come in Black, Navy, Purple, Brown, Red, Green and Taupe. Both women's and misses' shapes in the lots in good assortments.

The assortment of shapes includes numerous styles in both large and small and no woman need be disappointed for all tastes can be satisfied.

We have stated that these are manufacturer's sample shapes and this means a considerable saving to you. Ordinarily these shapes would sell from $2.00 to $5.00. Our prices now are 98c to $2.50.

Ornaments 39c and 69c

As a companion special to the shapes we offer a sample line of ornaments for trimming them. You know there isn't a great deal of trimming being used nowadays and one or two of these ornaments at the special price of 39c or 69c will be sufficient trimming for any of these special priced shapes. These shapes can be trimmed while you wait.

Arrange Union Services

SERBIANS PUSHING BULGARIAN FORCES BACK IN CERNA REGION

RETREATING ARMIES ARE FALLING BACK IN DISORDER, REPORT

(Bulletin)
London, Nov. 13.—Continuing the pursuit of retreating Bulgarian forces which were driven out of Polog in the Cerna front fighting, Serbian troops have captured Iven, north of Polog.
The fighting in this sector has been continued night and day, the official statement which told of Ivens' capture said. Bulgarians, time after time, attacked and occasionally gained a temporary advantage which they failed, however, to maintain.
Fighting was particularly fierce along the Monastir-Florina railway.

halls is raging with continued success for the French-Serbian forces in the region about the big bend of the Cerna river, Salonika headquarters reported to the war office today. Fighting has been going on two days and nights.
The war office announcement confirmed the report from Serbian headquarters, saying Tonton-Bulgar forces were driven from the village of Iven and the French official statement added that the retreating armies are "falling back in disorder." The Serbian pursuit continues despite five counter-attacks.
The enemy's losses were serious, the statement added.
Somewhat to west the Serbians have further progressed north of Velosco. Since September 12, the enemy has lost six thousand prisoners, 72 guns and fifty machine guns.

Republicans Hold Hope That California Official Vote May Turn Fortunes

New York, Nov. 13.—Charles Evans Hughes and Republican National Chairman Willcox today still clung to their view that perhaps the California official count will turn the Hughes fortunes. This count was slated to start today. Meantime Hughes stayed at his Astor hotel quarters and planned to remain there until the California result is known. Then he will take a rest, probably at some nearby resort.

Business Firms Made Attempts To Coerce Employees Votes, Claimed

Chicago, Nov. 13.—United States District Attorney Charles C. Clyne is today investigating new charges that large Chicago business firms made attempts to coerce votes of their employees last week.
Because of this new development, Clyne said the federal grand jury would postpone its hearing until later in the week. Meanwhile investigators are running down every tip.

HELP! UP GOES PRICE OF ALARM CLOCKS & MATTRESSES

Cleveland, Nov. 13.—And now comes the most unkind blow of all. The price of the most unpopular article in the world was boosted today. Perhaps it was a bit of irony. Famous Spy Is Charged With Blackmailing Bernstorff's Wife

New York, Nov. 13.—Dr. Karl Armagrand Graves, international spy, expressed himself today as confident of freedom from charges of blackmailing Countess Von Bernstorff, the German ambassador's wife. Letters upon which the blackmailing charges were made in Washington were explained by Graves as containing information regarding the U-53's exploits, upon which, he says, Count Von Bernstorff made a stock market "clean up."

HUGHES LEADS WILSON BY 250 VOTES IN THE STATE OF MINNESOTA

St. Paul, Minn., Nov. 13.—With 13 precincts of civilian voters missing and the majority of soldier votes not yet counted, Hughes today led Wilson by 250 votes in Minnesota. The addition of a Cass county precinct supposedly Democratic and some soldier votes, previously claimed by the Democrats, boosted Hughes' total votes to 173,815; Wilson 173,569.

Republicans claim this lead will be maintained.
With North Dakota definitely in the Wilson column, interests today turned to the formation of the state legislature which is completely under the domination of the farmers' non-partisan league. The league, organized last fall as an outgrowth of the equity of the co-operative exchange, had for its sole object state owned elevators and marketing of grain direct from the farmer to the miller, eliminating entirely board of trade speculation on all foodstuffs.

In South Dakota women's suffrage and the Richards direct primary seem definitely defeated.

BODY FOUND IN A BOX CAR

Hamlet, O., Nov. 13.—Police authorities are making an effort to round up 14 or 15 members of a railroad repair gang who may know something about the death of John Sullivan, 46, of Chicago. Sullivan was found dead in a box car on Saturday by men loading straw. Coroner Hoyer found marks on the man's neck that indicated he had been strangled with a handkerchief. The head was badly bruised and there were holes in the skull that had been made with a board having a nail in it.

London, Nov. 13.—Further details regarding the sinking by a German submarine of the American Hawaiian steamer Columbian are expected hourly. Word has been received here that progress is being made in the taking of affidavits from members of the Columbian's crew who were landed at Corrunna.

Fragmentary reports on the stories of these men agree on these facts:

During a lashing gale the Columbian was held up a week ago today by a German submarine which forced her to throw out sea anchors and heave to until the storm subsided. After two days of swinging in heavy seas, the submarine commander ordered the crew to the small boats. When all were off the submarine torpedoed the steamer, which later sank.

An English King's Death.
William Rufus was killed by an arrow, either accidentally or with murderous intent. He died in the New Forest. His body was stripped by tramps and the next day was found by a charcoal burner, who placed the naked corpse on his cart, hoping to receive a reward. On the way to Winchester the cart was upset and the king's body fell in the mire. Covered with filth and black with charcoal, it arrived in Winchester, where it was buried in the cathedral. A few years later the tower fell and crushed the tomb, and 600 years after the Puritans rified the grave and played football with the king's skull.

AS ENTERPRISE NOT PROFIT

Discussing the matter of election extras issued by The Times, more than one person has spoken of the big money there is in them for the publishers.

That is a rather an amusing view to those at all familiar with the cost of producing a paper. It will, perhaps, be interesting to give some data showing how mistaken it is, and also remove, in part, a common impression, that campaigns are a source of great revenue to the press. Let us say first that until advertising was resorted to by parties, an approaching election meant a loss rather than a gain to newspapers. Business for the period was otherwise dull, and the few extra papers issued did not bring a drop in the bucket, compared to the loss brought about through general dullness in trade.

As to extra editions that is another proposition altogether. Primarily they carry no advertising, the chief source of a newspaper's income, and there can be no profit in selling them at one cent a copy. To begin with the newsboys get a half cent for each copy sold. That cuts the receipts to the office down more than one-half, because returns, over-runs and waste are further to be deducted. With this must also be charged extra telegraph tolls, extra labor at extra pay, power, light, heat, ink and loss and wear on material and machinery. The metal used in making type is consumed in so many meltings, the life of the machinery is only so many revolutions. Thus each time they are used means a proportionate decrease of their value.

Even with all this we haven't allowed a thing for the reporters, managers and editors, though in a way they don't count, since they have got to do their work, whether it takes eight hours or twenty-four. Summing all this up together it can be easily believed extra editions don't produce enough profit to pay for the sandwiches that are bought to fill up the hollow places left by meals uneaten.

Why then did The Times get out those ten extra editions? Simply and solely because it aspires to be and is a newspaper. It has a reputation as such to maintain and extend and nowhere in all this broad land, in city small or great, did any paper give its constituency quicker or better service than The Times, and few equalled it. To give the best is the policy of The Times, a few dollars more or less in or out of its coffers for the time being is not reckoned. The final result is what counts with it and its fortunes. It strives for distinction in its class, for supremacy in its territory gained and maintained, relying on these to bring a reasonable profit on the total.

AS THE FIGURES TELL

Studying the belated figures one's conviction of the uncertainty of prognostications of elections grow. There are vagaries and apparent contradictions, impossible to account for, to say nothing of forecasting them.

Referring to some more notable of these by way of illustration we can say there was nothing the Wilson supporters so much feared as shift of German Democrats, as prospect made all the more imminent in the fact that for the first time in a presidential election, a large part of the Catholic clergy was active in politics and favoring Hughes. The returns from Cincinnati, with their immense population of German descent does not indicate the fear concerning this popular element was well founded. Perhaps, a more notable proof that it was not is furnished by Ste. Genevieve county, Missouri, the home of the senior editor. Three-fourths of the population thereof, and may be as high as five-sixths are of unmixed German blood and even more are Catholic in belief. Yet the Democrats carried the county by much larger majorities than has been the wont for some years past.

On the other hand, if the Republicans were alarmed over any one thing above the other it was the laboring vote, while their unquestioning reliance was placed on the farmer. Still here in Portsmouth, an exceptionally strong industrial town, they had almost "an old time majority,"—perhaps, to be in part accounted for by the large growth of the city and the hundreds of additional employees of the steel mills—but agricultural communities of Ohio and the west veered to the other side and actually caused defeat.

Bearing further on this subject, the vote in Henry county, this state, is of unusual interest. Up to two or three elections ago it was a Democratic stronghold, but of late has been going widely astray, owing to unfortunate party conditions. Its people being heavily of Teutonic origin, in the inner circles of party councils it was unanimously discussed as a sore spot. What then did Henry county do? It did just like the rest of the country, performed the altogether unexpected and gave Wilson a majority about five times as great as was most optimistically hoped for.

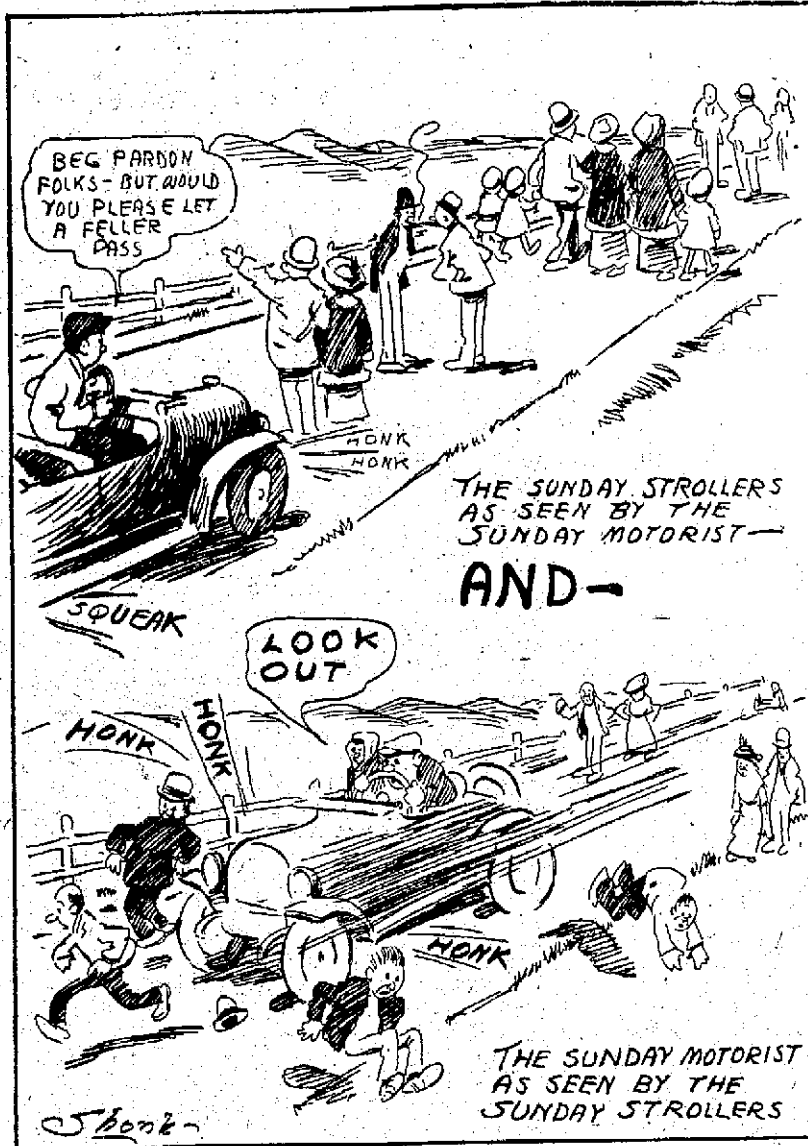

No, you can't tell how the people are going to vote and with this datum we dismiss the subject from further consideration.

We are yet thinking that the improvements on Sixth street being completed there is no call to let the debris from the old shacks clutter it as a remembrance of what was. Let this not be understood as having any reference to the site upon which is to go the new bank. Of a truth, the contractors for demolishing the building thereon are to be complimented for putting the premises in the best possible condition, awaiting plans to begin on the foundation.

And, if we can believe Bucharest it has come the turn of the redoubtable Von Muckenhausen to get "hiss."

If a thing can not happen one way, it can another, sometimes.

IT ALL DEPENDS

NOW IS THE BEST TIME

With the great contest over, there is news seeping out that the federal authorities are going to go vigorously into investigation and prosecution of boodling and bull-dozing in elections.

Let us hope there is no more news-faking in the reports and that the department of justice will do just as it is said it is going to do. A more auspicious time could not occur. The public mind is in a state of calmness and fairness to accept whatever is proven. It has a right to honest elections and it also has a right to know whether it is getting them or not. The affirmative is just as important in a way as the negative. Confidence must abide in election results, else ultimately will the stability of the nation totter. Confidence can not exist in the supreme fullness it should be, if stories of vote buying, immense corruption sums expended, colonization of voters and coercion of employees are reported the nation over as they are every campaign. Many of these are, doubtless pure inventions, more are exaggerated, but all are injurious and discredit the most vital principle of democracy, the free and untrammeled expression of the popular will. There ought to be a law imposing penalty upon those who wantonly spread abroad tales of fraud and corruption of the ballots just the same as there is upon those who commit acts to the same end. Lacking this, however, there is only one thing for the authorities to do and that is to expose those guilty of false witness, or punish those of evil practice. And we repeat there is no better time than now, with the people disposed to hear the actual truth and accept it.

Blessings, like misfortunes, come in flocks. He whom a nation once so proudly called "Teddy," says he has no advice to offer and isn't going to offer any; isn't going to say so much as a word.

A bit of heaven purifies the whole mass. Let us hope that for the new woman-congressman; or how shall we put that, congress-woman?

May be before the year closes Seinto county will have about four miles more of paved roads. We'll ask Jim Cox to help us double that for 1917.

It is getting a trifle monotonous narrating that prices of stocks and the activities of industries are increasing, but the condition is a pleasant one at that.

It Can Be Done
Somebody said that it couldn't be done.
But he with a chuckle replied That "Maybe it couldn't, but he would be one Who wouldn't say so till he'd tried." So he buckled right in, with a trace of a grin On his face. If he worried, he hid it. He started to sing as he tackled the thing That couldn't be done—and he did it.

Somebody scoffed: "Oh, you'll never do that; At least no one has ever done it." But he took off his coat and he took off his hat, And the first thing we knew he'd begun it: With the lift of his chin, and a bit of a grip, Not a doubt (if he had one he hid it.) He started to sing as he tackled the thing That couldn't be done—and he did it. There are thousands to tell you it cannot be done. There are thousands to prophesy failure. There are thousands to point out to you, one by one, The dangers that wait to assail you; But just buckle right in with a bit of a grin, Then take off your coat and go to it; Just start in to sing as you tackle the thing That "cannot be done"—and you'll do it. —Buffalo Courier.

Eight Persons Imperiled As Street Car And Auto Collide

The lives of eight people were imperiled in a serious collision between a street car and an automobile at Eleventh and Clay streets at 1:35 Sunday afternoon.

The automobile driven by C. M. Kent of Oak Hill and owned by Jacob Dole of that village was hit by a westbound street car in charge of Motorman E. Redden. The occupants of the car, C. M. Kent, who was at the wheel, Alford Kent, John Kent, Pauline Cooper, Pearl Cooper, Henrietta Cooper, Anna Cooper and Eunice Kent were thrown to the street, but escaped injury. Drs. J. S. Hardin and Dr. J. W. Jordan were summoned to the scene as it was first believed several of the occupants had been seriously injured.

Mr. Kent was driving his car north on Clay street, and he says he did not see the car coming west until too late to turn his machine out of the path of the street car. They collided with much force.

Both wheels on the right side of the machine were smashed, the fenders were damaged, the top was badly torn and one lamp was smashed.

VAN LOTELL HIT BY STREET CAR

Run down by a street car as he was crossing the street near Second and Chillicothe Saturday night at 7:30 o'clock Van "Lotell" Lotell was badly injured. He was unconscious when carried into Dr. W. E. Gault's office.

An examination showed that Lotell had suffered a three inch scalp wound on the back of his head, which required five stitches to close, his right ankle was sprained and the was bruised about the arms and shoulders. After being revived he told Dr. Gault that he had started across the street from the mayor's office and did not see a westbound street car approaching until too late, it striking him and knocking him down. Luckily his body cleared the tracks.

After Lotell's injuries were dressed he was taken to his home, Gay and Mill streets.

Aged Kingston Woman

Tells How She Recovered Her Strength

If the elderly people in Kingston could only realize what Vinol would do for them we would not be able to get enough to supply the demand. Following is a letter received from Mrs. A. E. Carson of this town. She says:

"I am 69 years of age, and had been ailing for a long time with indigestion. I got run down, was weak, dizzy and could not sleep at night. I consulted two doctors who said I had hardening of the arteries and at my age could not expect to be strong again. My daughter would give me no peace until I tried Vinol, as it had done so much for her. I have taken five bottles and my health and strength have come back so I am able to do all the housework for my family of four, and I am recommending Vinol to all my friends."

The reason Vinol is so beneficial to old people is because it contains the very elements needed to replace declining strength with renewed vigor, viz., beef and cod liver peptones, iron and manganese peptones, glycerophosphates and a mild tonic wine.

We want to ask every elderly person and every weak, run-down or debilitated person in Portsmouth to call at our store and get a bottle of Vinol, with the understanding that we will return your money if it fails to benefit.

High Class Musicales At First Christain

The people of Portsmouth, thanks to the action of the Women's Union and Local Men of the First Christian church, will have the opportunity on Friday night, November 24, of hearing one of the finest musical entertainments ever booked in the Peerless City. Reference is made to the Ada Roach company, who will render "The Heart of the Immigrant." This company will come here highly recommended by The Redpath Lyceum Bureau and is said to be one of their star numbers.

The company is composed of six members, four ladies and two gentlemen and they are especially selected for their ability and the manner in which they work together. In the production of "The Heart of the Immigrant" they will render songs of the different countries represented, telling of the first impressions gained on coming to America. Many of the numbers will carry a vein of humor.

Miss Roach has surrounded herself with a competent and talented company of musicians and character actors and their pretty little musical play will be one of the best things ever staged in Portsmouth.

Owing to the great cost in bringing the company here, it will be necessary to charge an admission of 50 cents for adults and 25 cents for children. The church was enabled to secure this attraction, owing to the fact that the company had an open date. It is hoped the people will patronize the musical in goodly number. Tickets are now being offered for sale.

Men actively identified with Bible study in the various Sunday schools of this city will meet in Bigelow M. E. church Tuesday evening at 7:30 o'clock to hear reports of delegates to a meeting held in Chillicothe last Friday when the Southern Ohio Federation of Men's Bible Classes met in that city.

PRESIDENT RETURNS TO WORK; WITHHOLDS OUTLINE OF POLICIES

Grocer Is Held Up In His Store By A Daring Highwayman

"Put up your hands! I want all the money you got in the cash drawer, and be quick about it," said a tall, slender man, wearing in addition to his other clothes, a gray overcoat, a cap and weighing about 145 pounds, to S. J. Cooper, who conducts a grocery store on Lincoln street, near Seventh. It was Saturday night at 6:45 o'clock and Mr. Cooper attempted to detain the hold highwayman, but he leveled the revolver at him and threatened to snap the trigger unless his orders were complied with. Mr. Cooper stepped to his cash drawer and turned over between $15 and $18 to the daring thief, who backed out of the door with his revolver aimed at Mr. Cooper and darted down a narrow alley and escaped. The police were notified, but the thief made a clean getaway.

"I was talking to my wife when the fellow came in," Mr. Cooper said today. "As the man walked up to me, he pulled his gun and told me to give him the money in the drawer. I looked him over carefully, and I am sure I could identify the man if I saw him again."

Mr. Cooper has owned the store just a month.

WHEELERSBURG

Miss Ethel Andre, of Portsmouth, was the Sunday guest of Mr. and Mrs. John Besco, of Nevada.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Rader and Mr. and Mrs. Henry Brunner, of Portsmouth, were the Sunday guests of Dr. and Mrs. G. M. Andre, of Main street.

Mr. and Mrs. George Gleim and family, of near Wheelersburg, were visitors to Sciotoville Saturday.

Osborn Lambert, of near Wheelersburg, who is suffering with typhoid fever, remains about the same.

Miss Margaret Reif, of Ironton, spent Sunday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Reif.

Miss Alice Comer, of Russell, Ky., and niece, Miss Barrett, of Florida, are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. N. Hudson, of Main street.

A Surplus. "I tell you," said the real estate agent, "there isn't a finer residence development on earth than this. Just look at the wonderful scenery."

"The scenery is all right," replied the man who was looking for a home. "The only trouble is there's too much of it between here and the city."—Milwaukee News.

BANQUET

Arrangements for the ninth annual banquet and meeting of the Business Men's Association, which is to be held Thursday evening, November 16, at All Saints Club, Fourth and Court streets, have been completed by the committee in charge.

The program promises to be one of the most interesting held here for several years. It is:

Opening remarks by Albert Zuelner, president.

Secretary's report by R. E. Thomas.

1917 Korn Karnival by Samuel Horehow.

Election.

O. M. Coburn, toastmaster.

"The New Court House," by Vallee Harold.

How a Big Business Was Built in a Small Town, by G. A. Garver, Strasburg, Ohio.

One Advantage.

"So you have adopted a baby to raise?" we ask of our friend. "Well, it may turn out all right, but don't you think you are taking chances?"

"Not a chance," he answers. "No matter how many bad habits the child may develop, my wife can't say he inherits any of them from my side of the house."—T.Mc.

Death Came Without Warning To Well Known Wheelersburg Man

Death came without warning to Mado F. Mackey, Saturday, Nov. 11, at 5 p. m., at his home in Wheelersburg. Apparently he was in the best of health, standing talking to his nephew, when he suddenly fell to the ground and expired in a few minutes, although everything possible was done to revive him.

He was born Jan. 20, 1863, at Siloam, Ky., and was a son of H. C. and S. E. Mackey. He was married to Nellie Gammon, of Siloam, in 1893, who died in 1895, leaving one daughter, Bessie. Later he married Elizabeth Brant, of Lucasville, who with one son, Brant, and the daughter survive him, also two brothers, J. B. and M. E. Mackey, of Wheelersburg, and one sister, Mrs. H. F. Ruggles, of Louisville, Ky.

Early in life he identified himself with the Christian church at Siloam, of which he was an officer and Sunday school superintendent for 18 years.

Seven years ago he moved to Wheelersburg and engaged in farming. Three years later he became a member of The Wheelersburg Milling Company firm with his two brothers, J. B. and M. E. Mackey, in which business he was actively engaged at the time of his death.

He was a man of upright character and universally liked. His sudden death was a great shock to his many friends.

The funeral services will be conducted from the home at 10 a. m. Tuesday. Burial in Wheelersburg cemetery.

Meet Me At Nye's Fountain, 12th

Will Move To Columbus

Mr. and Mrs. Orlando Keller and two children, of Robinson avenue, are moving to Columbus, where Mr. Keller will work in the N. & W. shops, he having resigned his position in the local N. & W. shops several days ago.

Returns To Capital City

George Riskey, of Columbus, Ohio representative of the Selby Shoe Company, has returned to the Capital City after spending several days at the factory of his firm, having been accompanied here by two buyers.

Overfeeding Fish. Overfeeding proves to be no better for such animals as fishes than for man. The aquarium of the New York Zoological society has more than 3,000 fishes, representing 140 species, and the director reports that in this great collection the death rate has been materially lowered—with a great saving in labor and expense as well as in specimens—by changing the feeding to alternate days instead of every day. An excess of fat resulted from the too generous diet.

REV. G. W. JENKINS FIRM ENDORSER OF NERV-WORTH

Cumberland Pastor "Found" Nerv-Worth and Tells About It

This Nerv-Worth endorser is the widely known, pastor of the McKendree Methodist Episcopal church of Cumberland, Md. He experienced the value of Nerv-Worth while in Youngstown some time ago. He says:

"I would say in giving my testimony to the effectiveness of Nerv-Worth that I have not been influenced by any argument of Nerv-Worth doing what it claims to do in the case of nervous indigestion, nervousness and general weakness."

"I have used it in my family with the result that I am willing to risk this testimonial more for the good of others than the company of Nerv-Worth manufacturers, believing it will help the suffering wherever it is possible for Nerv-Worth to reach the case."

"I am yours sincerely in truth as far as I can discern it in the properties of Nerv-Worth."

G. W. JENKINS, Pastor of the McKendree Methodist Episcopal church, Cumberland, Md.

Rev. Jenkins says Nerv-Worth did wonders for his daughter. She has used about one bottle and is a new woman, after trying all kinds of medicines and doctoring for years, with no success. He concluded to try Nerv-Worth, and only PART OF ONE BOTTLE brought the answer. He is a very grateful man.

Your dollar bank at Fisher & Streich's pharmacy, Portsmouth, O., if Nerv-Worth does not benefit you. Ask Demonstrator Derwacter for a sample dose.

Steamboat Parade To Feature Meeting

Cincinnati, Nov. 12.—An immense steamboat parade on the Ohio river from Huntington, W. Va., to Cincinnati, will feature the program of the Ohio Valley Improvement Association's convention, according to Executive Secretary W. C. Cullins.

It was also announced at this meeting that Locks and Dams No. 23, 25 and 27 have been ordered by the government. When these are completed the nine-foot stage will have been established from Pittsburgh to Cincinnati.

Knights Will Visit Sciotoville Lodge

Magnolia, Massie and Peerless lodges, Knights of Pythias, and visiting knights will go to Sciotoville tonight to visit their brethren there. Two special cars have been chartered for the trip, and it is expected they will be crowded to the guard rails by the enthusiastic knights, as their fierce goat will be out looking for him.

Inspection Meeting

The ladies of Vienna Camp Sons of Veterans will meet in regular session at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harry M. Siskles, 1202 Second street, Friday evening, Nov. 17. This will be the yearly inspection meeting, and the president, Mrs. Harry Eichorn, desires that every member of the auxiliary attend this meeting, also all members of Vienna Camp.

Branch Rickey Heads New O. W. U. Association

Delaware, Ohio, Nov. 12.—The first annual celebration of the founding of Ohio Wesleyan University was held here Saturday, bringing back several hundreds of graduates. Addresses were made by President J. W. Hoffman, Branch Rickey, Wesley Page and Conch P. W. Dixon.

A gorgeous parade was given through the principal street. Branch Rickey, whose name is prominently mentioned for the presidency of the National Baseball Commission, was elected president of the association. He formed here Saturday of all men who have won in athletics here.

Returns To Norfolk

Frank Bates, formerly an assistant electrician in the Selby shoe factory, but now in the United States navy and stationed at the training station at Norfolk, who has been spending a twelve-day furlough here, returned to Norfolk Sunday. He is well pleased with his new berth in the navy, and expects to be sent to the Chinese station in the next few weeks. He will serve as an electrician in the navy and expects to be a past-master at his trade at the expiration of his term of enlistment.

The village of Olive Hill, Ky., is place having last Tuesday voted favorably upon a $10,000 bond issue to get a new $10,000 water works and electric light plant, the voters of that place.

Looking For Suspects

Chief Clark has been at Marion, O., since Tuesday trying to capture Harve McGlothlin and Pete Parks, wanted in connection with the recent big robbery of hides from the N. & W.

The two are said to have disposed of some of the hides in Ironton. When they went to the junk dealer there after their money they saw several police officers hiding about the place and they took to their heels, the police say.

SUIT FILED AGAINST LOCAL CONTRACTORS

Judgment for $3750 is asked against the S. Monroe and Sons company, local contractors in charge of the erection of the new flood wall addition, by The Blaw Steel Construction company, Pittsburgh, Pa. in an action for money filed in the local court of common pleas Monday morning by Attorneys Rammson & Rammson.

In the petition the petitioners say that on June 13, 1916, a contract was entered into by the two parties mentioned, in which the defendant agreed to lease 200 lineal feet of steel "wall forms" to be used in the construction of the flood wall. For the use of the forms, the defendants agreed to pay of the erection of the new flood wall $1750 at the end of 30 days; $1000 in 60 days and $1000 in 90 days. The forms were shipped, the plaintiff avers, on July 14 and 15 this year.

Judgment for the entire amount is asked by the plaintiff.
